MISDEMEANOR STUDY COMMISSION

Report to the Governor and the General Assembly—1972

This Commission was created by Senate Joint Resolution No. 71, prepared by the Office of Attorney General, in anticipation of the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in Argersinger v. Hamlin, 407 U.S. 25 (1972).

The Commission first met on April 18, 1972, at which time Senator Parkerson was elected Chairman and Deputy Attorney General of Virginia, Reno S. Harp, III, was elected Secretary. The Commission asked the Attorney General's Office to prepare an analysis of those statutes of the Code imposing a misdemeanor penalty. The initial review of the Code of Virginia by members of the staff of the Attorney General revealed that there were some 1156 statutes imposing misdemeanor penalties contained in the Code of Virginia and an analysis of the same was furnished the Commission on June 1, 1972, by the Secretary.

On June 12, 1972, the Supreme Court of the United States decided Argersinger v. Hamlin, 407 U.S. 25 (1972), which held that an individual may not be deprived of his liberty as a result of any prosecution for a misdemeanor at which he was denied the assistance of counsel. This particular case involved an indigent who was tried for an offense punishable by imprisonment up to six months and a $1000 fine, or both, and given a 90 day jail sentence. The Supreme Court concluded that failure to appoint counsel constitutes reversible error.

Copies of this decision were immediately furnished to members of this Commission by the Secretary and a meeting was held on June 15, 1972, at which time the Commission reviewed all of the misdemeanor penalties imposed by law in effort to determine what should be the appropriate range of punishment. A tentative report was prepared in July and the Commission met again on October 18, 1972, to prepare its final report. The Commission decided to adopt five categories of misdemeanor penalties which are set forth in the table below:

Grade A	Not to exceed 12 months jail and/or	$1000
Grade B	Not to exceed 6 months jail and/or	500
Grade C	Not to exceed 1 month jail and/or	100
Grade D	Not to exceed XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX	1000
Grade E	Not to exceed XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX	500

It was felt after careful consideration that, inasmuch as the Virginia Code Commission had decided in principle to adopt a similar type of categorization, this approach should be taken in order to obviate further revision by the Code Commission in its recodification of Titles 18.1 and 19.1.

Attached hereto is a compilation of each misdemeanor statute contained in the Code of Virginia with its present penalty and the category recommended by the Commission. The bills to carry out the recommendations of this Commission will be introduced at the 1973 Session of the General Assembly. It should be noted that the recommended categories represent the consensus of the majority of the Commission, and do not necessarily reflect the opinion of each member in every instance.

In addition the Commission felt it necessary that the Code be amended to provide for the appointment and payment of counsel appointed to represent indigents charged with a misdemeanor offense. It is well settled, of course, that the court has the inherent power to appoint counsel, but no statutory power now exists to provide for the payment of counsel appointed to represent misdemeanants except in juvenile cases pursuant to § 16.1-173. The Commonwealth would be responsible for their payment only when she institutes the prosecution, while the localities would bear these costs in cases where municipal ordinances are involved. A bill to carry out this recommendation of the Commission is filed with this report.

The Commission wishes to express its particular appreciation to its Secretary, Deputy Attorney General, Reno S. Harp, III, Assistant Attorney General Vann H. Lefcoe, Assistant Attorney General, Linwood T. Wells, Jr. and John B. Boatwright, Jr., Director, Division of Statutory Research and Drafting, for their assistance in this most difficult project.

Respectfully submitted,

William F. Parkerson, Jr., Chairman

To amend the Code of Virginia by adding sections numbered 14.1-184.1 and 19.1-241.7 through 19.1-241.12, so as to provide for the appointment of counsel for indigent persons charged with certain offenses; procedures for each appointment; how such counsel shall be compensated; penalties.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia :

1. That the Code of Virginia be amended by adding sections numbered 14.1-184.1 and 19.1-241.7 through 19.1-241.12 as follows:

§ 14.1-184.1. When the judge of the circuit court of a county or city or a corporation or hustings court of a city appoints an attorney to defend a poor person charged with an offense that may be punishable by confinement in jail, he may direct that a sum not to exceed one hundred dollars shall be paid out by the Commonwealth, if the Commonwealth has initiated the prosecution, or by the county, city or town, if a county, city or town has initiated the prosecution, to the attorney so appointed to defend such person as compensation for such defense. The court shall direct the payment of such reasonable expenses incurred by such court appointed attorney as it deems appropriate under the circumstances of the case. When such directive is entered upon the order book of the court, the Commonwealth, county, city or town, as the case may be, shall provide for the payment out of its treasury of the sum of money so specified. If the defendant is convicted, the amount allowed by the court to the attorney appointed to defend him shall be taxed against the defendant as a part of the costs of prosecution and, if collected, the same shall be paid to the Commonwealth, or the county, city or town, as the case may be. An abstract of such costs shall be docketed in the judgment docket and execution lien book maintained by such court.

In addition to the foregoing provisions, the judge of a court of record who has appointed counsel to defend a poor person charged with an offense punishable by confinement in jail between June 12, 1972, and the effective date of this section, both inclusive, may direct that a sum not to exceed one hundred dollars shall be paid out by the Commonwealth or by the county, city or town which initiated the prosecution to the attorney so appointed as compensation for such defense.

§ 19.1-241.7. In any case in which a person is charged with an offense, the penalty for which may constitute confinement in jail, and appears for any hearing before any court without being represented by counsel, such court shall, before proceeding with the hearing, appoint an attorney at law to represent him and provide such person legal representation throughout every stage of proceeding against him, except as may otherwise be provided in § 16.1-173.

The order of appointment of counsel shall be filed with and become a part of the record of such proceeding. The attorney so appointed shall represent the defendant at all stages of the proceeding, including an appeal, if any, until relieved or replaced in the manner provided by law.

§ 19.1-241.8. Every person charged with the commission of an offense punishable by confinement in jail, except as may otherwise be provided in § 16.1-173, not free on bail or otherwise shall be brought before the judge of a court not of record on the first day on which such court sits after the person is charged, at which time the judge shall inform the accused of the amount of his bail, and shall inform him of his right to counsel. The accused shall be allowed a reasonable opportunity to employ counsel of his own choice or, if appropriate, the statement of indigence provided for in § 19.1-241.9 may be executed. In no case in which the accused has not been advised of his right to counsel shall he be sentenced to confinement in jail.

§ 19.1-241.9. At the first appearance of any person charged with an offense punishable by confinement in jail before a court, except as may otherwise be provided in § 16.1-173, the judge thereof shall ascertain before such hearing whether or not the defendant is represented by counsel. If the defendant is not represented by counsel, the court shall ascertain by oral examination of the defendant whether or not the defendant desires to waive his right to counsel, and whether such waiver is voluntary and intelligently made. In the absence of such waiver, the court then shall ascertain by competent evidence whether the defendant is indigent within the contemplation of law; and if the court thereby determines that such defendant is indigent as contemplated by law, the court shall provide the defendant with a statement which shall contain the following:

“I have been advised this day of, 19....., by the (name of court) court of my rights to representation by counsel in the trial of the charge pending against me; I certify that I am without means to employ counsel of my own choosing and I hereby request the court to appoint counsel for me.”

The defendant shall execute such statement under oath and the court shall appoint competent counsel to represent the defendant in the proceeding against him. If the court determines that such defendant is not indigent, such fact shall be noted on the record.

In the event the defendant desires to waive his right to counsel, and the court ascertains that such waiver is voluntary and intelligently made, then the court shall provide the defendant with a statement which shall contain the following:

“I have been advised this day of, 19....., by the (name of court) court of my rights to representation by counsel in the trial of the charge pending against me. I have been further advised that, if I am unable to afford counsel, one will be appointed for me free of charge.

“Understanding my right to have counsel appointed for me free of charge, I wish to waive that right and have the court proceed with my case without an attorney being appointed for me.

“I hereby waive my right to have counsel appointed for me, voluntarily and of my own free will, without any threats, promises, force or undue influence.”

(signature of accused)

Any executed statement herein provided for shall be filed with and become a part of the record of such proceeding.

Should the defendant refuse or otherwise fail to sign either of the statements herein described, the court shall note such refusal on the record. Such refusal shall be deemed to be a waiver of the right to counsel, and the court, after so advising the defendant and offering him the opportunity to rescind his refusal shall, if such refusal is not rescinded and the defendant's signature given, proceed to hear and decide the case.

§ 19.1-241.10. The court not of record before which a hearing is pending on a charge upon which the accused may be sentenced to confinement in jail shall afford such continuance and take such other action as is necessary to protect the interests of the accused.

§ 19.1-241.11. Counsel appointed to represent the defendant upon such charge shall be compensated in an amount fixed by each of the courts in which he appears, except in no event shall the payment for services rendered in the proceedings before a court not of record exceed the sum of seventy-five dollars. This provision shall apply to counsel appointed under the provisions of this chapter, and to all counsel appointed to represent indigents on misdemeanor charges or ordinance violations between June 12, 1972, and the effective date of this section, both inclusive.

§ 19.1-241.12. Any person who shall falsely swear or who shall execute the first statement provided for in § 19.1-241.9 knowing such statement to be false shall be guilty of a Grade A misdemeanor.
