REMISSION OF FORFEITED RECOGNIZANCE

SHACKLEFORD, WILLIAM RUSSELL. Judgment entered November 18, 1974, in the Circuit Court of Mathews County for failure of William Russell Shackelford, Jr. to appear for trial in the Circuit Court of Mathews County. Bond in this case was provided by the father of the accused for the appearance of his son in court to answer criminal charges on a specified day and was forfeited for non-appearance of the son on that day. The son was subsequently extradited from Texas to Virginia, tried and acquitted of the offense charged. Since the father appeared to be a man of modest means, whose assets would be largely depleted by forfeiture of the entire bond because of his son's dereliction, and there being no objection from the sentencing judge nor the prosecuting attorney, it was thought that the ends of justice and the dignity of the judicial system could appropriately be served by reducing the amount of the forfeiture to the sum stated plus the costs of extradition. This document dated March 28, 1975.
