ABSOLUTE PARDON

CHRISTIAN, MILTON. Sentenced March 24, 1977, in the Circuit Court of Richmond, Division 1, upon a conviction of Possession of Heroin with intent to distribute and sentenced to twenty years, and of Possession of Preludin and sentenced to one year. Based upon after-discovered evidence throwing serious doubt upon the credibility of the arresting officers, whose testimony constituted the sole evidence for the prosecution, the Parole Board recommending, the Honorable Aubrey M. Davis, Jr., and the Honorable J. Randolph Tucker, Jr., not objecting, I am granting Milton Christian an Absolute Pardon, and order that the aforesaid offenses be removed from any and all records upon which they may appear. This Pardon, however, is not to affect any other sentence which Milton Christian is now serving or may have to serve in the future. This pardon dated May 27, 1980.

CONDITIONAL PARDON

FARIS, WAYNE DEWEY, JR. Sentenced December 21, 1976, in the Circuit Court of Pittsylvania County upon a conviction of Possession of Marijuana with intent to distribute and sentenced to twenty-years. Chapter 435 of the 1979 Acts of Assembly reduces the penalty for certain criminal offenses involving the possession, manufacture, cultivation, distribution or sale of marijuana, and there are certain inmates presently confined within the Virginia Department of Corrections who are serving sentences which exceed the maximum sentences which could be imposed pursuant to Chapter 435. It appears to me that Wayne Dewey Faris, Jr., No. 110348, is such an inmate; and in the absence of Executive Clemency such inmates would receive no benefit from Chapter 435. Therefore, I am granting him a Conditional Pardon for the conviction herein named and do order that he be relieved of any unserved sentence which exceeds ten years, upon the condition that he be placed under the supervision of the Virginia Parole Board for a period of five years, to commence upon his release from incarceration. The Pardon granted hereby shall have no effect upon any other sentence which the said Wayne Dewey Faris, Jr., No. 110348, is serving or which he may have to serve in the future. This pardon dated July 24, 1980.

JACOBSEN, WILLIAM GEORGE. Sentenced September 7, 1961, in the Circuit Court of Princess Anne County upon a conviction of two counts of Attempted rape and sentenced to Death on each count and of two counts of Malicious wounding and sentenced to twenty years on each count. On the two counts of Attempted rape, Mr. Jacobsen was originally sentenced to death by electrocution. These sentences were commuted to life imprisonment by Governor J. Lindsey Almond, Jr., on December 6, 1961. Under present law, these offenses would constitute Class 4 felonies, carrying maximum penalties of ten years for each conviction. Mr. Jacobsen has served nineteen years while stabilizing a remarkable correctional record. It is apparent to me that further incarceration would be of no benefit to him or to the safety of the Commonwealth. However, under § 53-251 of the Code of Virginia, Mr. Jacobsen will never become eligible for parole. Considering the foregoing facts, and upon the favorable recommendation of the Parole Board, the present Commonwealth's Attorney and the Circuit Court of Virginia Beach (formerly Princess Anne County) voicing no objection, I am hereby granting William George Jacobsen a Conditional Pardon. I order that he be released forthwith from the custody of the Virginia Department of Corrections and placed under the supervision of the Virginia Parole Board until December 18, 1985, under such conditions as it may impose, and with the special condition that he participate in such alcoholic rehabilitation programs as his Parole Officer may direct. I further order that should he be found guilty of violation of the penal laws of any city, county, State, or of the United States prior to December 18, 1990, this Pardon shall remain subject to revocation. This pardon dated December 18, 1980.

REVOCATION OF CONDITIONAL PARDON

DAVIDSON, PAUL MACK. Sentenced on January 4, 1979, in the Circuit Court of Danville upon a conviction of uttering a forged prescription and sentenced to four years, and of attempt to utter a forged prescription and sentenced to four years with three years suspended. On September 6, 1979, I granted Mr. Davidson a Conditional Pardon and ordered that he be placed under the supervision of the Virginia Parole Board. The Pardon further stipulated that should he violate any of the conditions prior to May 9, 1982, or be found guilty of violation of the penal laws of any city, county, State or of the United States, this pardon may be revoked. The Subject has now been returned to confinement as a result of violation of Condition 1 of the Parole Conditions, a conviction in the General District Court of Henry County on March 19, 1980, on the charge of Speeding, for which he was fined $60 and required to pay costs of court, and for violation of Condition 4, operating a motor vehicle after having been instructed by his parole officer not to do so. I have reviewed the Parole Board's recommendation and a copy of the hearing transcript, and have discussed this matter with both Mr. Davidson and his attorney, John Swezey. In view of the developments in this case, I do hereby revoke the Conditional Pardon granted Paul Mack Davidson on September 6, 1979. This revocation dated July 31, 1980.

PARDON WITHOUT CONDITIONS

JACOBSON, DAVID JUNIOR. Sentenced October 20, 1978, in the Circuit Court of Prince William County upon a conviction of Second-degree Murder and sentenced to twenty years with five years suspended.
