Executive Summary

The Virginia Roanoke River Basin Advisory Committee (VRRBAC) was established in the executive branch of state government as an advisory committee to the Virginia delegation to the Roanoke River Basin Bi-State Commission. The Committee assists the delegation in fulfilling its duties and carrying out the objectives of the Commission, pursuant to § 62.1-69.39.

This year the Committee has functioned in largely an organizational and developmental manner. Officers have been appointed and subcommittees have been formed. Nine meetings of VRRBAC have been held throughout the basin in an effort to provide an opportunity for interested citizens to contribute input to the Committee. Issues important to the Basin have been considered and speakers have informed the group about pertinent topics. The Governor has appointed non-legislative representatives to the Virginia delegation of the Roanoke River Basin Bi-State Commission. North Carolina (NC) has not completed the formation of its counterpart advisory committee, so the Roanoke River Basin Bi-state Commission has not met.

This report provides information on VRRBAC's 2003 activities. It further identifies several recommendations of the group to be carried forth by the Virginia delegation to the Roanoke River Basin Bi-State Commission.

I. Introduction

The Virginia Roanoke River Basin Advisory Committee (VRRBAC) was established in the executive branch of state government as an advisory committee to the Virginia delegation to the Roanoke River Basin Bi-State Commission. The advisory committee is composed of 21 members that include six legislative members and 11 non-legislative citizen members, and four ex-officio members. The non-legislative members of the advisory committee were recommended by the planning district commissions and reside within the Basin's watershed, represent the diversity of interests in the jurisdictions comprising the respective planning district commissions, and demonstrate interest, experience, or expertise in water-related Basin issues. The Committee assists the Virginia delegation to the Roanoke River Basin Bi-State Commission in fulfilling its duties and carrying out the objectives of the Commission, pursuant to § 62.1-69.39.

The Roanoke River Basin Bi-State Commission was established as a bi-state commission composed of members from the Commonwealth of Virginia and the State of North Carolina. The purpose of the Commission is:

1. Provide guidance, conduct joint meetings, and make recommendations to local, state and federal legislative and administrative bodies, and to others as it deems necessary and appropriate, regarding the use, stewardship, and enhancement of the Basin's water and other natural resources;
2. Provide a forum for discussion of issues affecting the Basin's water quantity, water quality, and other natural resources;
3. Promote communication, coordination and education among stakeholders within the Basin;
4. Identify Basin-related problems and recommend appropriate solutions; and
5. Undertake studies and prepare, publish, and disseminate information through reports, and other communications, related to water quantity, water quality and other natural resources of the Basin.

II. Meetings and Locations

VRRBAC held meetings throughout the Roanoke basin in an effort to make the meetings available to all basin constituents. Nine meetings were held in Chatham, Richmond, Clarksville, South Boston, Roanoke, Brookneal, Danville, Ebony, and Blacksburg.

III. Organization

John Feild of Clarksville was elected Chairman and Charles Poindexter of Glade Hill and Mike McEvoy of Roanoke were elected as Co-Vice Chairman. These officials were elected to provide a geographical, urban, and rural balance to the committee leadership.

IV. Current Membership of VRRBAC

There are currently 16 members and 2 vacant seats. North Carolina has not provided any “ex officio” members. A list of current members is provided below.

Senator Charles R. Hawkins	Mike McEvoy, Vice-Chairman, Roanoke
Senator Frank M. Ruff	Charles D. Poindexter, Vice-Chairman, Glade Hill
Delegate Kathy J. Byron	Read Charlton, Charlotte Court House
Delegate Thomas C. Wright, Jr.	Robert H. Conner, Ebony
Delegate Robert Hurt	Lee B. Eddy, Roanoke
Delegate A. Victor Thomas	Watt R. Foster, Brookneal
Representative Virgil H. Goode, Jr.	Haywood J. Hamlet, Phenix
John H. Feild, Chairman, Mecklenburg	Evelyn Janney, Floyd

V. Non-legislative Delegates to the Roanoke River Basin Bi-State Commission

The Governor appointed Watt Foster, Mike McEvoy, and Haywood Hamlet as non-legislative delegates to the Roanoke River Basin Bi-State Commission.

VI. Sub-committees

The sub-committees formed are Agriculture and Forestry, Lake Interests, Municipal Interests and Permit Holders, River Interests, and Water. The committees are set up to parallel the structure of the NC counterpart so that the groups can easily interface with each other. Chairman Feild has given direction that the subcommittees should prepare position papers on important issues and bring them back to the full Committee for adoption. The sub-committees should bring the most knowledgeable people possible to the table, where the work of VRRBAC must take place. The groups should receive broad-based input consolidated from as many interested parties as possible. The sub-committees have added or are seeking members that will represent stakeholders throughout the basin. An effort is made to maintain a geographical and urban/rural balance. VRRBAC members serve as chair and vice-chair of these subcommittees. Other members may serve as their particular skills are needed. The current known composition of the committees is listed below.

Agriculture and Forestry: Haywood Hamlet – Chairman, Evelyn Janney - Vice-Chairman, and Robert Conner.

Lake Interests: Robert Conner – Chairman, Charles Poindexter - Vice-Chairman, John Field, and Watt Foster. Other citizen members include Jean McCarter.

Municipal Interests and Permit Holders: Lee Eddy – Chairman, Mike McEvoy, and Read Charlton. Other citizen members include Ken Cabarle and William Johnson.

River Interests: Watt Foster – Chairman, Read Charlton - Vice-Chairman, and Lee Eddy. Bud LaRoche is representing Virginia Division of Game and Inland Fisheries (VDGIF) on the committee. Other citizen members include Pamela Kent Pettus, Maureen Castern, J. T. Davis, Jerry Lovelace, and Tom Stutts.

Water: Mike McEvoy – Chairman and Robert Conner – Vice-Chairman. Other citizen members include William Johnson.

The Lake sub-committee held three meetings this year for the purpose of gathering information from the public concerning problems at the lakes. The meetings were held at Lake Gaston, Kerr Reservoir, and Smith Mt. Lake in July, August, and December respectively. This information is being compiled by the sub-committee and will be presented to VRRBAC at a future meeting.

The other sub-committees are in the process of recruiting members and gathering information.

VII. Issues and Topics of Interest:

Funding of VRRBAC Activities: A mechanism for funding exists but depends upon appropriations to DEQ, which have not been made.

Importance of Natural Resources to the Economic Vitality of the Basin: People reside in and come to the Roanoke River Basin area to pursue various interests including vacation, lifestyle, esthetics, boating, fishing, etc. These activities and personal values help drive the economic engine of the local and regional area. Clean water and ample flow and supply are recognized as essential to existing beneficial uses and future economic growth. In addition, the importance of agriculture to our lifestyle and economy should be noted.

Inter-basin Transfer of Water: It is recognized that when inter-basin transfers occur, economic vitality may disappear with the water. The Virginia Beach –Lake Gaston pipeline is an example of such a transfer. The committee recognizes that Virginia Beach has been a good neighbor. However, there is great concern that other large urban areas are looking at the Roanoke Basin as a source of water. Greensboro and the NC Triangle area have apparently studied the Roanoke Basin for this purpose.

Water Withdrawals: There are proposed water withdrawals from the Dan River sub-basin at Milton and Eden. There is concern about the impacts of these withdrawals on the river system and neighboring communities. For instance, even though the Milton withdrawal would be returned to the basin, the re-entry point would be miles down stream of the withdrawal and below Halifax. Therefore, impacts to a large section of stream and a community could be realized. In addition, it is possible that Granville County, NC may be able to purchase the water intake/rights of the Burlington Plant in Clarksville. This could directly impact the Clarksville area.

Regulation of Flow and Storage: There are interrelationships within the basin involving flow, as events in one section of the basin can impact other parts. The interconnection between surface water and groundwater is noted. Low groundwater table levels due to the recent drought are of concern. Drought/low flow conditions impact beneficial uses of the water and must be defined to aid the planning process. Increased storage has been discussed as an option to consider for future planning purposes. A visit was made to the Roanoke County Spring Hollow off-stream storage facility.

Basin-wide Dialogue: A goal of the Committee is to open channels of communication. It is important that dialogue take place which is representative of all areas of the basin. Speakers representing different geographic areas and interests have addressed VRRBAC. There must be rural and urban cooperation on water issues. Sub-committees have been given direction to promote such an effort through discussion and collaboration.

Policy and Planning: VRRBAC has followed the State Water Policy development and was represented on the Technical Advisory Committee. The group is interested in promoting policy that protects the Roanoke Basin. The Committee has requested representation on the John H. Kerr 216 Sponsors Advisory Committee. Members have been involved with the FERC re-licensing effort and Shoreline Management Plan development at Smith Mt. Lake. Members have heard and discussed pertinent planning issues including the importance of defining low flow conditions, local control of land use decisions, public river access for recreation and fishing, flooding, storm water management, and water reuse. In addition, members discussed that a commonality in VA and NC water policy/regulations could enhance the management of issues involving the two States.

Invasive Species: VRRBAC has discussed issues regarding Hydrilla and other invasive species such as Zebra mussels. The Lake sub-committee received public questions about the lack of funding to control Hydrilla at Lake Gaston and the effectiveness of treatment.

Recreation and Fishing: Concerns have been expressed to the committee about the striped bass and other fisheries. The Committee toured the Vic Thomas Striped Bass Hatchery and DGIF staff discussed the resource. The importance of fishing and other water sports to the economic health of the region is noted. VRRBAC is also aware of the American Shad and American Eel Restoration programs being conducted.

Water Quality: The good water quality of the Roanoke basin is valued by the group and is recognized as a characteristic that must be preserved. The members are familiar with various subjects associated with protection of water quality including animal waste regulations, Total Maximum Daily Loads (TMDLs), Low Impact Development (LID) Techniques, Best Management Practices (BMPs) for agriculture and urban development, Biological Source Tracking (BST), Nutrient Management Plans, Biosolids, and the impact of air pollution on water quality. Water reuse, the Virginia Water Protection Permit Program, and desalination were also topics of discussion.

IX. Recommendations

- The Roanoke River Basin Scenic River Designation and responsibilities should be assigned to VRRBAC.
- VRRBAC should be represented on the John H. Kerr 216 Study Sponsors Advisory Committee.
- VRRBAC favors the development of a State-wide Water Policy, but only one that mandates local stakeholder input and is against the inter-basin transfer of water that is detrimental to the people of the basin.
- VRRBAC is against any inter-basin transfers that would have a substantial negative impact on the people of the basin. The overall consensus of VRRBAC is that the group must protect the water resources and growth potential. Water resources are recognized as essential for the economic vitality of the Roanoke River Basin.
- VRRBAC is opposed to any new water withdrawal until such time that the real and potential needs for the foreseeable future are determined. Furthermore when it is possible to do so, VRRBAC intends to ask the corresponding committee in NC to go on record supporting this same motion.
