

Department of Criminal Justice Services - Agency 140

Agency Programs and Services Available to Senior Citizens

1. Number of Persons Served by Agency Programs/Services by Age Range:

	Number Served
A. 65-74	1939*	*Agency programs only differentiate 65 and above
B. 75-84
C. 85-older

2. Agency Services used by Persons 65 and Older.

A. List of those services

All agency services are available to persons of any ages. The most widely used include: Victim Witness Program, Sexual Assault Crisis Center, Sexual Assault and Domestic Violence Program, Community Corrections and Pre-trial Programs

B. Does agency have the capacity to meet the demand for services

1. Yes The agency has the capacity to meet current program demands.
2. No

3. Identify current agency programs specifically designed to serve persons 65 and older.

A. List of those programs falling into the category of Public Safety

The agency provides one program (i.e., Alzheimer's Training for First Responders) designed for persons 65 and older. There may be local criminal justice programs that are directed to this age group.

4. Identify Agency consumer oriented publications and online resources that are "senior friendly".

Agency publications and our web-site are developed to be senior friendly.

5. Other Agency services or programs that have been implemented or are planned that will address the impact of the aging population in Virginia.

We have funded crime prevention efforts directed to those 65 and above.

sons 65 and above.