In 1995, Mr. Walker retired from the United States Marine Corps as a staff sergeant and began working as a corrections officer with the District of Columbia Department of Corrections. Ten years later, he was declared unsuitable to be a corrections officer because of his 1982 conviction resulting from an incident earlier that year where his ex-wife accused him of assault and battery for pushing her in order to get to the door to leave her residence in order to avoid an altercation. This is Mr. Walker’s only conviction. He requested a pardon to assist in obtaining employment in his field of training.

ABSOLUTE PARDONS

BURNETTE, Victor Anthony

1. Victor Anthony Burnette was convicted of rape and burglary on October 23, 1979, in the City of Richmond Circuit Court.
2. Mr. Burnette was sentenced on December 5, 1979, to 25 years in the penitentiary. He was released on parole in November 1987 and discharged from parole on July 25, 1993.
3. Using technology unavailable at the time of the crime for which Mr. Burnette was convicted, the Virginia Department of Forensic Science conducted forensic testing that excluded Mr. Burnette as a contributor to the DNA evidence associated with the rape. Thereafter, the Office of the Commonwealth Attorney in Richmond conducted a review of the Mr. Burnette's 1979 conviction for rape and burglary.
4. On June 13, 2007, the Virginia Parole Board received a letter from Mr. Toni M. Randall, Supervising Attorney for the Office of the Commonwealth's Attorney in Richmond, stating that the Hon. Michael N. Herring, Commonwealth's Attorney for the City of Richmond, had no objections to the petition because the defendant was excluded from the DNA recovered from the victim.
5. Through his counsel, Mr. Burnette petitioned for a grant of Executive Clemency. The principal ground of the petition was that the DNA testing had demonstrated that Mr. Burnette could not have committed the crime for which he was convicted on October 23, 1979.
6. Therefore, upon careful deliberation and review of all the information and the circumstances of the matter, I have decided it is just and appropriate to grant this ABSOLUTE PARDON that reflects Mr. Burnette's innocence of rape and burglary for which he was convicted on October 23, 1979.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Timothy M. Kaine, Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia, in accordance with the authority granted to me under Article V, Section 12 of the Constitution of Virginia, do hereby grant unto Victor Anthony Burnette this Absolute Pardon from the conviction handed down by the City of Richmond Circuit Court on October 23, 1979.

Given under my hand and under the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth at Richmond, this 3rd day of April, Two Thousand Nine and the 233rd year of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

THOMPSON, Teddy Pierres

1. Teddy Pierres Thompson was convicted of robbery, the use of a firearm in the commission of a felony, and the possession of a firearm by a felon on March 9, 2001, in the City of Hampton Circuit Court. On June 25, 2001, Mr. Thompson was sentenced to eight years imprisonment for robbery, three years for the use of a firearm in the commission of a felony, and five years for the possession of a firearm by a felon.
2. Mr. Thompson pled not guilty to these charges and has consistently maintained his innocence.
3. Mr. Thompson's direct and habeas appeals were all denied by Virginia and Federal courts.
4. The victim of the robbery, Antonio Mitchell, testified at trial that a gunman approached him on a street corner in Hampton on March 26, 2000, and robbed him of his wallet, driver's license, and a fleece jacket. One month after the robbery, Mr. Mitchell identified Mr. Thompson as the person who robbed him by viewing a photo spread.
5. In 2007, Mr. Mitchell voluntarily informed the Hampton police that he had made a mistake and that it was a person other than Mr. Thompson who had robbed him on March 26, 2000.
6. The Commonwealth Attorney's Office for the City of Hampton, debriefed Mr. Mitchell and was persuaded that he was truthful in his assertion of Mr. Thompson's innocence. Based on further investigation, the Commonwealth Attorney moved the City of Hampton Circuit Court to set aside Mr. Thompson's convictions.
7. On September 10, 2007, the Honorable Judge Louis R. Lerner of the City of Hampton Circuit Court, granted the motion to set aside Mr. Thompson's convictions and entered an order vacating Mr. Thompson's convictions of March 9, 2001.
8. Mr. Thompson was released from prison on September 10, 2007.
9. On February 4, 2009, the Virginia General Assembly unanimously approved House Bill 2050, "An Act for the relief of Teddy Pierres Thompson," recognizing Thompson's innocence of the March 9, 2001 convictions and granting him certain monetary relief for his period of incarceration.
10. Through his counsel, Mr. Thompson petitioned me for a grant of absolute pardon on February 25, 2009.

11. Therefore, and, upon careful deliberation and review of all of the information in this matter, I have decided it is just and appropriate to grant this ABSOLUTE PARDON that reflects Mr. Thompson's innocence of the crimes of robbery, the use of a firearm in the commission of a felony, and the possession of a firearm by a felon, for which he was convicted on March 9, 2001.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Timothy M. Kaine, Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia, in accordance with the authority granted to me under Article V, Section 12 of the Constitution of Virginia, do hereby grant unto Teddy Pierris Thompson this Absolute Pardon from the convictions handed down by the City of Hampton Circuit Court on March 9, 2001.

Given under my hand and under the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth at Richmond, this 23rd day of September, Two Thousand Nine and the 234th year of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

WHITFIELD, Arthur Lee

1. Arthur Lee Whitfield was convicted of rape, sodomy, and robbery on January 19, 1982, in the City of Norfolk Circuit Court. Mr. Whitfield was sentenced to serve 45 years.
2. Subsequently, on June 18, 1982, Mr. Whitfield pled guilty to a second rape indictment, apparently because he did not want to face trial with a recent rape conviction. He was sentenced pursuant to his plea agreement to serve 18 years in the Virginia State Penitentiary.
3. On August 23, 2004, the Virginia Parole Board received a letter from the Commonwealth's Attorney in Norfolk, John Doyle, confirming that Mr. Whitfield had been exonerated by DNA testing from both offenses and requesting that the Parole Board immediately release Mr. Whitfield from custody.
4. In the letter, Mr. Doyle stated:

“My careful analysis of these [DNA] results and the evidence from the trial of this matter convinces me beyond any question that these results exonerate Mr. Whitfield from involvement in these offenses.”
5. Virginia Parole Board promptly granted Mr. Whitfield discretionary parole on August 23, 2004.
6. Through his counsel, Mr. Whitfield petitioned for a grant of Executive Clemency. The principal ground of the petition was that the DNA testing demonstrated that Mr. Whitfield could not have committed the crimes for which he was convicted on January 19 and June 18, 1982.
7. The Virginia Department of Forensic Science has confirmed that the DNA evidence excludes Mr. Whitfield from having committed the crime. In addition, the DNA is consistent with that of a person currently serving life sentences for multiple unrelated sexual assaults.
8. Therefore, upon careful deliberation and review of all the information and the circumstances of the matter, I have decided it is just and appropriate to grant this ABSOLUTE PARDON that reflects Mr. Whitfield's innocence of rape and burglary for which he was convicted on January 19 and June 18, 1982.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Timothy M. Kaine, Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia, in accordance with the authority granted to me under Article V, Section 12 of the Constitution of Virginia, do hereby grant unto Arthur Lee Whitfield this Absolute Pardon from the convictions handed down by the City of Norfolk Circuit Court on January 19 and June 18, 1982.

CONDITIONAL PARDONS

AL-KHALILI, Saifuddin

Saifuddin Al-Khalili was convicted of three counts of robbery, entering a bank armed, and three counts of possessing a firearm during a robbery in the County of Clarke Circuit Court on May 15, 1998. He was sentenced to 53 years in prison with 33 years suspended. By counsel, he has petitioned for a conditional pardon, commuting his sentence to time served upon certain conditions.

The Commonwealth's Attorney for the County of Clarke, the Hon. Suzanne Mackall Perka, supports the petition, stating in part:

"I believe that ten years of active incarceration is an appropriate punishment given the circumstances of these defendants and in comparison with other sentences imposed by the courts. The sentences meted out to these defendants seem out of balance with other defendants sentenced for similar crimes who have pled guilty."; and

"I respectfully request that the Governor grant the petition for early release of the [defendants]."

The Clarke County Sheriff, Anthony W. Roper, states:

"I understand that our Commonwealth's Attorney, Suzzanne Perka, supports the early release of these individuals. Although I have not conferred with her on the specifics of this case, I have enormous respect for her, and her sense of justice for our community."

Mr. Al-Khalili has submitted a letter from residents of Clarke County in support of his petition signed by more than 1100 residents. Additionally, the Clarke County Bar Association submitted a resolution supporting Mr. Al-Khalili's petition and numerous employees of the bank that suffered the original crime for which Mr. Al-Khalili was convicted have written me in support of his petition.

Due to the significant support of the chief law enforcement officers in Clarke County, the disparate sentencing in this case as compared with other serious crimes in Clarke County, and given the tremendous community support for the petition,

NOW THEREFORE, I, Timothy M. Kaine, acting in accordance with the powers and authority granted to me as Governor of Virginia under Article V, Section 12 of the Constitution of Virginia, do hereby grant Saifuddin Al-Khalili a conditional pardon for his convictions of May 15, 1998. This pardon is conditioned upon Mr. Al-Khalili's acceptance of the following terms and conditions:

I. Mr. Al-Khalili shall be under the custody and control of the Virginia Parole Board, subject to the following conditions:

1. He shall report in person or by telephone to the assigned Probation and Parole office within two working days of his release from incarceration, and as otherwise instructed thereafter.
2. He shall obey all Federal, State, and local laws and ordinances.
3. He shall report any arrest, including traffic tickets, within three days to the Parole Officer.
4. He shall notify the Parole Officer promptly of any employment and changes in his employment.
5. He shall permit the Parole Officer to visit his home and place of employment.
6. He shall follow the Parole Officer's instructions and will be truthful, cooperative, and report as instructed.

8. He shall not use, own possess, transport or carry a firearm.
9. He shall not change his residence without permission of the Parole Officer.
10. He shall not travel outside of an area designated by the Parole Officer without permission of the Parole Officer.
11. He shall not abscond from supervision and understands that he will be considered an absconder when his whereabouts are no longer known to the Parole Officer.

II. The Parole Board may revoke Mr. Al-Khalili's pardon until January 12, 2042, based on a violation of one or more of the conditions in Section I, or based on a finding by the Board that he is otherwise unfit or unsuitable to remain on supervision. Mr. Al-Khalili shall be subject to arrest upon cause shown by the Parole Board or the Parole Officer. Mr. Al-Khalili may be considered for unsupervised probation after ten (10) years from the date of release. If granted, he must remain on unsupervised probation until January 12, 2042.

Given under my hand and the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth at Richmond, the 12th day of January in the year of two thousand and ten and this 234th year of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

DICK, Joseph Jesse, Jr.

Joseph Jesse Dick, Jr. pled guilty and was convicted of capital murder and rape in the City of Norfolk Circuit Court and sentenced on April 28, 1999 to two life sentences without the possibility of parole. By counsel, he has petitioned for an absolute pardon. The Petitioner has not conclusively established his innocence and therefore an absolute pardon is not appropriate. However, the Petitioner has raised substantial doubts about his conviction and the propriety of his continued detention.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Timothy M. Kaine, acting in accordance with the powers and authority granted to me as Governor of Virginia under Article V, Section 12 of the Constitution of Virginia, do hereby grant Joseph Jesse Dick, Jr. a conditional pardon. This pardon is conditioned upon Mr. Dick's acceptance of the following terms and conditions:

- 10 He shall not travel outside of an area designated by the Parole Officer without permission of the Parole Officer.
- 11 He shall not abscond from supervision and understands that he will be considered an absconder when his whereabouts are no longer known to the Parole Officer.

II. The Parole Board may revoke Mr. Dick's pardon until August 6, 2029, based on a violation of one or more of the conditions in Section I, or based on a finding by the Board that he is otherwise unfit or unsuitable to remain on supervision. Mr. Dick shall be subject to arrest upon cause shown by the Parole Board or the Parole Officer. Mr. Dick may be considered for unsupervised probation after ten (10) years from the date of release, but must continue on good behavior until August 6, 2029.

Given under my hand and the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth at Richmond, the 6th day of August in the year of two thousand and nine and this 234th year of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

RICHARDSON, Jesse Donald

Jesse Donald Richardson was convicted of aggravated sexual battery in the Henry County Circuit Court on January 8, 2003 and sentenced to seven (7) years. The person who claimed to be his victim, who was nine years old at the time, now says her statement to police and court testimony was the result of adult and peer pressure. The victim's recantation is found to be credible and the Commonwealth's Attorney endorses and supports executive clemency in this case.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Timothy M. Kaine, acting in accordance with the powers and authority granted to me as Governor of Virginia under Article V, Section 12 of the Constitution of Virginia, do hereby grant Jesse Donald Richardson a conditional pardon for the crimes he was convicted of on January 8, 2003. This pardon is conditioned upon Mr. Richardson's acceptance of the following terms and conditions:

I. Mr. Richardson shall be under the custody and control of the Virginia Parole Board, subject to the following conditions:

- 11 He shall not abscond from supervision and understands that he will be considered an absconder when his whereabouts are no longer known to the Parole Officer.
- 12 He shall undergo random drug testing upon order of and in strict accordance with the instructions of the Parole Officer. Such tests may be as frequent as the Parole Officer deems appropriate, but not less than four times in any twelve-month period. Should Mr. Richardson have a positive drug test or violate any term or condition of release, he shall be subject to a prison term of five years in addition to any other sentence applicable for that or any other offense.

II. The Parole Board may revoke Mr. Richardson's pardon, based on a violation of one or more of the conditions in I., or based on a finding by the Board that he is otherwise unfit or unsuitable to remain on supervision. Mr. Richardson shall be subject to arrest upon cause shown by the Parole Board or the Parole Officer. The maximum date of release from supervision is November 24, 2010. Pardon Granted 4/3/09

RE: April 3, 2009 Conditional Pardon for Jesse Donald Richardson Jr.

To whom it may concern:

The Conditional Pardon granted to Jesse Donald Richardson Jr., granted on April 3, 2009, contained erroneous information regarding the date of conviction and sentence for which executive clemency was granted. The date of the conviction and the sentence stated in the Conditional Pardon are hereby amended to be November 18, 2002, and six (6) years with three (3) years suspended, respectively.

We apologize for these clerical errors, which do not constitute a material change to this Conditional Pardon. This clarification to the document shall be regarded as nunc pro tunc.

STEVENSON, Gabriel Shane

Gabriel Shane Stevenson was convicted of 20 counts of forging and 20 counts of uttering in the County of Tazewell Circuit Court on February 12, 1997. He was originally sentenced to 20 years in prison for the forging convictions and 20 years in prison for the uttering convictions. However, the entire sentence was suspended contingent upon his completing a twenty-week boot camp program. Mr. Stevenson was unable to complete the boot camp due to medical reasons and, on May 30, 1997, was ordered to serve one year in prison. On February 19, 1998, after his release from prison on probation and due to his violating his probation, the Tazewell County Circuit Court revoked the entirety of Mr. Stevenson's suspended sentence and ordered him to serve the remaining 19 years of his sentence without the possibility for parole. By counsel, he has petitioned for a conditional pardon, commuting his sentence to time served upon certain conditions.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Timothy M. Kaine, acting in accordance with the powers and authority granted to me as Governor of Virginia under Article V, Section 12 of the Constitution of Virginia, do hereby grant Gabriel Shane Stevenson a conditional pardon for his convictions of February 12, 1997. - 4 He shall notify the Parole Officer promptly of any employment and changes in his employment.

Mr. Stevenson may be considered for unsupervised probation after five (5) years from the date of release. If granted, he must remain on unsupervised probation until January 12, 2017.

By counsel, he has petitioned for an absolute pardon. The Petitioner has not conclusively established his innocence and therefore an absolute pardon is not appropriate. - 11 He shall not abscond from supervision and understands that he will be considered an absconder when his whereabouts are no longer known to the Parole Officer.

II. The Parole Board may revoke Mr. Williams' pardon until August 6, 2029, based on a violation of one or more of the conditions in Section I, or based on a finding by the Board that he is otherwise unfit or unsuitable to remain on supervision. MEDICAL PARDONS

CAMPBELL, LEON

Mr. Leon Campbell, was brought to trial and was convicted on March 19, 2004 in the Roanoke County Circuit Court for Possession with intent to distribute Cocaine and on March 31, 2004 in the Roanoke City County Circuit Court for Marijuana Distribution. At this time he is serving a six (6) year, twenty-three (23) month sentence.

Mr. Leon Campbell submitted a request for Executive Clemency, based upon the fact that he had been diagnosed metastasized cancer and is terminally ill and has a life expectancy of ninety (90) days or less. His request was then submitted to the Medical Clemency Assessment Committee, which is directed to review all requests for clemency, which are based upon allegations of fatal illnesses. The medical experts and the Committee have determined that the medical condition of Leon Campbell has deteriorated to the point where advising physicians believe that he will likely not survive beyond the requisite three (3) months period.

NOW THEREFORE, in light of the foregoing, in accordance with the provisions of the powers granted to me under Article V, Section 12 of the Constitution of Virginia, I Timothy M. Kaine, do hereby grant Leon Campbell, Conditional Clemency in the form of a Medical Furlough under the supervision of the Virginia Parole Board. Provided, however, that this release on Medical Furlough shall be subject to Leon Campbell accepting the following conditions:

- (1) He is to abide by all conditions of release as established by the Virginia Parole Board;
- (2) He is to remain confined to his parent's home, 1909 Varnell Ave, Roanoke VA 24012, 540-981-9116, as determined by the orders of the Virginia Parole Board;
- (3) His medical treatment will no longer be the responsibility of the Virginia Department of Corrections; however, the Virginia Parole Board will be provided with monthly medical updates on his medical condition;
- (4) He is not to leave his residence without the permission of the supervising Probation and Parole District Office;
- (5) He is to abide by any additional conditions established by the Virginia Parole Board and the Virginia Department of Corrections;
- (6) If any of the foregoing conditions of this Medical Furlough are violated or Leon Campbell recovers health to where he is ambulatory, or engages in any criminal activity of any nature whatsoever during this period of Medical Furlough, he shall forfeit all privileges provided under this grant of clemency and, in my discretion, shall be subject to immediate arrest and incarceration to complete the term of his original sentence.

Given under my hand and the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth at Richmond, this 13 day of February in the year of two thousand and nine and this 233rd year of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Mr. Leon Campbell, received 1/9/09, granted 2/13/09 (died 2/21/09)

CREWS, Terry Tyrone

Mr. Terry Tyrone Crews, was brought to trial and was convicted on February 12, 2009 in the Petersburg City Circuit Court for a false statement on a criminal consent form and on March 27, 2007 in the Dinwiddie County Circuit Court for being an Habitual Offender and Driving after being declared an Habitual Offender. At this time he is serving a three (3) years and six (6) month sentence.

The Crews family submitted a request for Executive Clemency, based upon the fact that he had been diagnosed as terminally ill with Hepatocellular Carcinoma and has a life expectancy of ninety (90) days or less. Their request was then submitted to the Medical Clemency Assessment Committee, which is directed to review all requests for clemency, which are based upon allegations of fatal illnesses. The medical experts and the Committee have determined that the medical condition of Terry Tyrone Crews has deteriorated to the point where advising physicians believe that he will likely not survive beyond the requisite three (3) months period.

NOW THEREFORE, in light of the foregoing, in accordance with the provisions of the powers granted to me under Article V, Section 12 of the Constitution of Virginia, I Timothy M. Kaine, do hereby grant Terry Tyrone Crews, Conditional Clemency in the form of a Medical Furlough under the supervision of the Virginia Parole Board. Provided, however, that this release on Medical Furlough shall be subject to Terry Tyrone Crews accepting the following conditions:

- 1 He is to abide by all conditions of release as established by the Virginia Parole Board;
- 2 He is to remain confined to 20913 Boydton Plank Road, McKenny, VA 23872, a health care facility licensed by the Commonwealth or a location approved by the Virginia Parole Board;
- 3 He is not to operate any motor vehicle;
- 4 His medical treatment will no longer be the responsibility of the Virginia Department of Corrections; however, the Virginia Parole Board will be provided with monthly medical updates on his medical condition;
- 5 He is not to leave his place of confinement, except for an emergency medical purpose, without the permission of the supervising Probation and Parole District Office;
- 6 He is to abide by any additional conditions established by the Virginia Parole Board;

- 7 If any of the foregoing conditions of this Medical Furlough are violated or Terry Tyrone Crews recovers health, or engages in any criminal activity of any nature whatsoever during this period of Medical Furlough, he shall forfeit all privileges provided under this grant of clemency and, in the discretion of the Governor or the Virginia Parole Board, shall be subject to immediate arrest and incarceration to complete the term of his original sentence.

Given under my hand and the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth at Richmond, this 14th day of October in the year of two thousand and nine and this 234th year of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Mr. Crews died on October 22, 2009.

COMMUTATIONS

HARMON, Sharyn Gail

WHEREAS , the Circuit Court of the County of Chesterfield, Virginia, on April 24, 2002, entered a trial and Sentencing Order finding Sharyn Gail Harmon guilty of one count of misdemeanor embezzlement and sentencing her to incarceration in the Chesterfield County Jail for the term of twelve months, with eleven months and twenty days of the sentence suspended for a period of three years upon condition of good behavior, payment of all court costs and restitution of the victim;

WHEREAS, all costs, fines and other sentence obligations have been met, including an incident-free life since the incident for which Ms. Harmon was convicted;

WHEREAS, it appears to the Governor that Ms. Harmon is a fit subject for clemency, specifically for her petition for a COMMUTATION OF SENTENCE to be favorably considered wherein she asked for her term of incarceration to be reduced to five months, nunc pro tunc, with four months and twenty days of the sentence suspended;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Timothy M. Kaine, Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia, by virtue of the authority vested in me, grant a COMMUTATION OF SENTENCE to SHARYN GAIL HARMON, reducing her term of incarceration to five months, nunc pro tunc, with four mounts and twenty days of the sentence suspended, which as been served.

This action does not represent official forgiveness for the crime committed.

Given under my hand and under the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth at Richmond, the 1st day of July in the year of two thousand and nine, and in the 234th year of the Commonwealth.

REPRIEVES

ELLIOTT, Larry Bill

Larry Bill Elliott was convicted of the capital murder of Dana Thrall and first degree murder of Robert Finch on March 24, 2003. He was sentenced to death for the murder of Dana Thrall and received a life sentence for the murder of Robert Finch.

State and federal courts have consistently upheld Elliott's convictions.

Given the nature of these crimes and the facts that were presented at trial, I have no reason to question the prosecutor's decision to seek the death penalty or the jury's decision that death was an appropriate sentence. He is scheduled to be executed on October 5, 2009.

Claiming innocence of the crime for which he was convicted, Elliott has petitioned me to commute his sentence of death to a sentence of life in prison. This petition was filed with my office on August 28, 2009.

My office thoroughly reviews each clemency request for a reprieve from capital punishment. This duty is imperative given the irreversible nature of an execution.

Due to the complicated nature of this case, more time is necessary for me to review this clemency petition. Accordingly, I am hereby granting a delay of Elliott's execution date until November 17, 2009.

Given under my hand and under the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth at Richmond, the 16th day of September in the year of two thousand and nine, and in the 234th year of the Commonwealth.
