RE: "Report on the Status of the Implementation of Short-Time Compensation Programs Pursuant to Chapter 7 (§60.2-700 et seq.) of Title 60.2 of the Code of Virginia"

Executive Summary

Since the January 1, 2015 implementation of the law, there have been no participating employers.

The U. S. Department of Labor issued a determination letter dated September 30, 2014, that Virginia's STC law precluded Virginia from qualifying for a grant for STC program activities due to sunset provisions in 60.2-701(5) and 60.2-710-(6).

The act will expire on July 1, 2016.

This executive summary represents the report of the Virginia Employment Commission, to date. A legislative document will not be submitted.
