Joint Subcommittee to Consult on the Plan to Close State Training Centers

OVERDUE - Received the following letter from the Joint Subcommittee to Consult on the Plan to Close State Training Centers on December 1, 2017: The 2017 General Assembly adopted new budget language (Item 1, paragraph N.2., Chapter 836, 2017 Acts of Assembly), that directed the Joint Subcommittee (of the House and Senate Finance Committees) to Consult on the Plan to Close State Training Centers to develop and evaluate a plan for consideration of operating a smaller state training. The plan shall determine operating costs, capital costs and other relevant factors for consideration by the General Assembly. The joint subcommittee is directed to make recommendations related to the plan to the General Assembly by November 30, 2017. Staff of the House Appropriations and Senate Finance Committees have worked with staff from the Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Services to develop and evaluate several scenarios for the continued operation of a smaller training center. At this point, the Joint Subcommittee still needs to convene to consider the plan in order to make recommendations to the General Assembly. A meeting of the Joint Subcommittee will be scheduled to meet prior to the 2018 Session. At that meeting, staff will present the plan to the joint subcommittee for its consideration. Following the meeting, the joint subcommittee will submit a concise report summarizing the plan and recommendations to the General Assembly. With Best Regards, /s/ The Honorable Emmett W. Hanger, Jr. Co-Chairman, Senate Finance Committee Appropriation Act - Item 1 N.2. (Regular Session, 2017) - [11/30/2017]

OVERDUE - Received the following letter from the Joint Subcommittee to Consult on the Plan to Close State Training Centers on December 1, 2017: The 2017 General Assembly adopted new budget language (Item 1, paragraph N.2., Chapter 836, 2017 Acts of Assembly), that directed the Joint Subcommittee (of the House and Senate Finance Committees) to Consult on the Plan to Close State Training Centers to develop and evaluate a plan for consideration of operating a smaller state training. The plan shall determine operating costs, capital costs and other relevant factors for consideration by the General Assembly. The joint subcommittee is directed to make recommendations related to the plan to the General Assembly by November 30, 2017. Staff of the House Appropriations and Senate Finance Committees have worked with staff from the Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Services to develop and evaluate several scenarios for the continued operation of a smaller training center. At this point, the Joint Subcommittee still needs to convene to consider the plan in order to make recommendations to the General Assembly. A meeting of the Joint Subcommittee will be scheduled to meet prior to the 2018 Session. At that meeting, staff will present the plan to the joint subcommittee for its consideration. Following the meeting, the joint subcommittee will submit a concise report summarizing the plan and recommendations to the General Assembly. With Best Regards, /s/ The Honorable Emmett W. Hanger, Jr. Co-Chairman, Senate Finance Committee Appropriation Act - Item 1 N.2. (Regular Session, 2017) - [11/30/2017]

Joint Subcommittee to Study Mental Health Services in the Commonwealth in the 21st Century

PUBLISHED - Interim report on the study of mental health services in the Commonwealth in the 21st century. In conducting its study, the Joint Subcommittee shall: (i) review and coordinate with the work of the Governor's Task Force on Improving Mental Health Services and Crisis Response; (ii) review the laws of the Commonwealth governing the provision of mental health services, including involuntary commitment of persons in need of mental health care; (iii) assess the systems of publicly funded mental health services, including emergency, forensic, and long-term mental health care and the services provided by local and regional jails and juvenile detention facilities; (iv) identify gaps in services and the types of facilities and services that will be needed to serve the needs of the Commonwealth in the twenty-first century; (v) examine and incorporate the objectives of House Joint Resolution 240 (1996) and House Joint Resolution 225 (1998) into its study; (vi) review and consider the report "The Behavioral Health Services Study Commission: A Study of Virginia's Publicly Funded Behavioral Health Services in the 21st Century;" and (vii) recommend statutory or regulatory changes needed to improve access to services, the quality of services, and outcomes for individuals in need of services. In reviewing the need for facility beds at the community level, the Joint Subcommittee shall give consideration to whether the current fiscal incentives for expanding regional jail capacity should be eliminated and replaced with a new incentive for construction, renovation, or enlargement of community mental health facilities or programs, which may or may not be co-located with selected jails on a regional basis. The Joint Subcommittee shall consider the appropriate location of such facilities; cooperative arrangements with community services boards, behavioral health authorities, and public and private hospitals; licensing, staffing, and funding requirements; and the statutory and administrative arrangements for the governance of such facilities. The Joint Subcommittee shall give consideration to the development of such facilities or programs on a pilot basis. Senate Joint Resolution 47 (Regular Session, 2014) - [12/1/2017]

Joint Subcommittee to Study the Use of Driver's License Suspension

PUBLISHED - Report on the study of the use of driver's license suspension as a collection method for unpaid court fines and costs, including a review of the current law regarding the use of driver's license suspension as a method for the collection of unpaid fines and costs and the relevant law in other states. The study shall (i) determine whether the current law negatively affects the employment opportunities of persons whose licenses are suspended; (ii) consider alternative methods for improving the rate of collection of unpaid fines or costs by lowering obstacles to removing license suspensions, including allowing for the compromise or waiver of unpaid fines, costs, and accrued interest thereon; (iii) consider whether fines assessed as part of a criminal penalty should be treated differently than administrative court costs for purposes of license suspensions; (iv) consider whether there should be greater consistency among courts regarding payment plan guidelines and whether such guidelines should be more accessible; and (v) make recommendations for improvements to the current law. House Joint Resolution 69 (Regular Session, 2016) - [1/11/2017]

OVERDUE - Received the following letter from the Joint Subcommittee to Consult on the Plan to Close State Training Centers on December 1, 2017: The 2017 General Assembly adopted new budget language (Item 1, paragraph N.2., Chapter 836, 2017 Acts of Assembly), that directed the Joint Subcommittee (of the House and Senate Finance Committees) to Consult on the Plan to Close State Training Centers to develop and evaluate a plan for consideration of operating a smaller state training. The plan shall determine operating costs, capital costs and other relevant factors for consideration by the General Assembly. The joint subcommittee is directed to make recommendations related to the plan to the General Assembly by November 30, 2017. Staff of the House Appropriations and Senate Finance Committees have worked with staff from the Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Services to develop and evaluate several scenarios for the continued operation of a smaller training center. At this point, the Joint Subcommittee still needs to convene to consider the plan in order to make recommendations to the General Assembly. A meeting of the Joint Subcommittee will be scheduled to meet prior to the 2018 Session. At that meeting, staff will present the plan to the joint subcommittee for its consideration. Following the meeting, the joint subcommittee will submit a concise report summarizing the plan and recommendations to the General Assembly. With Best Regards, /s/ The Honorable Emmett W. Hanger, Jr. Co-Chairman, Senate Finance Committee Appropriation Act - Item 1 N.2. (Regular Session, 2017) - [11/30/2017]

OVERDUE - Received the following letter from the Joint Subcommittee to Consult on the Plan to Close State Training Centers on December 1, 2017: The 2017 General Assembly adopted new budget language (Item 1, paragraph N.2., Chapter 836, 2017 Acts of Assembly), that directed the Joint Subcommittee (of the House and Senate Finance Committees) to Consult on the Plan to Close State Training Centers to develop and evaluate a plan for consideration of operating a smaller state training. The plan shall determine operating costs, capital costs and other relevant factors for consideration by the General Assembly. The joint subcommittee is directed to make recommendations related to the plan to the General Assembly by November 30, 2017. Staff of the House Appropriations and Senate Finance Committees have worked with staff from the Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Services to develop and evaluate several scenarios for the continued operation of a smaller training center. At this point, the Joint Subcommittee still needs to convene to consider the plan in order to make recommendations to the General Assembly. A meeting of the Joint Subcommittee will be scheduled to meet prior to the 2018 Session. At that meeting, staff will present the plan to the joint subcommittee for its consideration. Following the meeting, the joint subcommittee will submit a concise report summarizing the plan and recommendations to the General Assembly. With Best Regards, /s/ The Honorable Emmett W. Hanger, Jr. Co-Chairman, Senate Finance Committee Appropriation Act - Item 1 N.2. (Regular Session, 2017) - [11/30/2017]
