

Respectfully submitted,

Most state employee grievances are resolved prior to being addressed at a hearing. DHRM reports that there were 100 state employee grievance hearing decisions issued in Fiscal Year 2019. In those hearings, a decision was rendered in favor of the employee, in the form of partial or full relief, in 22 cases (22%).

Grievance hearings conducted under the state employee grievance procedure are not subject to the Administrative Process Act. Va. Code § 2.2-4002(B); Op. Att'y Gen. 31 (Sept. 4, 1997). Accordingly, there were no grievance hearings held under the Administrative Process Act subject to the language above.

Process Act (§ 2.2-4000 et seq. of the Code of Virginia) and (ii) the number of decisions from such hearings that were rendered in favor of employees.

Department of Human Resource Management (DHRM) is required to provide a report each year to the Senate Committee on General Laws and Technology and the House Committee on General Laws detailing:
