Conditional Pardons

Allen, III, Donald Eric

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME – GREETINGS:

WHEREAS, Donald Eric Allen, III was convicted in the General District Court of Henrico County on January 29, 2002, on one count of driving on suspended/revoked operator's license (4th offense) and one count of failure to appear. He served 90 days on the conviction of driving on suspended/revoked operator's license (4th offense) with ninety days suspended for the conviction of failure to appear. Additionally, he was convicted in the Circuit Court for the City of Richmond on August 21, 2002, on three counts of robbery and two counts of use of firearm in commission of a felony. He received a term of twenty-five years on each conviction of robbery and five years on the conviction of the use of firearm, to be served consecutively, with twenty years suspended on each of the robbery convictions. Finally, he was convicted in the Circuit Court for the County of Henrico on September 10, 2002, of one count of robbery and one count of use of firearm in commission of a felony. He received a term of twenty years for robbery and three years for use of a firearm, to be served consecutively, with five years suspended on the robbery conviction;

WHEREAS, Donald Eric Allen, III submitted a petition for executive clemency; and

WHEREAS, Donald Eric Allen, III appears to be a proper subject for clemency; and

NOW THEREFORE, in accordance with the provisions of Article V, Section 12 of the Constitution of Virginia, I, Ralph S. Northam, do hereby grant Donald Eric Allen, III, a Conditional Pardon for his convictions of driving on a suspended/revoked operator's license (4th offense), one count of failure to appear, robbery and use of a firearm in the commission of a felony, effective April 2, 2020 Provided, however, that this Conditional Pardon shall be subject to Mr. Allen accepting the following terms and conditions:

- (1) He submits to the Virginia Parole Board a home plan, which it approves;
- (2) He is supervised by Probation and Parole, as directed by the Virginia Parole Board, for three (3) years upon his release from the Department of Corrections;
- (3) He is to abide by any and all additional terms and conditions established by the Virginia Parole Board or the Virginia Department of Corrections;
- (4) He releases all claims, demands, and causes of action, whether known or unknown, accrued or unaccrued, he has or may have against the Commonwealth of Virginia, as well as its political subdivisions, officials, employees, and agents that are in any way related to or arise out of Mr. Allen's arrest or incarceration in the Virginia Department of Corrections. Mr. Allen agrees that this release is binding on his heirs, assigns, agents, and estate;
- (5) That the terms and conditions of this Conditional Pardon shall be satisfied three (3) years from the date of Mr. Allen's release from the Department of Corrections, provided he has complied with all the terms and condition of this Conditional Pardon; and
- (6) If any of the foregoing terms and conditions of this Conditional Pardon are violated, Mr. Allen shall forfeit all privileges provided under this grant of Clemency and, at my direction, shall be subject to immediate arrest and incarceration to complete the term of his original sentences.

Given under my hand and the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth at Richmond, this 2nd day of April in the year of two thousand and twenty and this 244th year of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Blount, Travion

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME, GREETING:

WHEREAS, Travion Terrell Blount was convicted in the Norfolk City Circuit Court on March 12, 2008, of numerous felonies related to an armed robbery he committed when he was 15 years old and sentenced to an active period of incarceration of 6 life sentences plus 118 years; and

WHEREAS, Travion Terrell Blount was convicted in the Norfolk General District Court on September 15, 2008, for Assault and Battery, and in the Norfolk Circuit Court on August 17, 2009, of Assault by Mob and sentenced to an additional 15 month sentence, and on March 12,

2010, Norfolk Circuit Court revoked 30 days on each of the seven counts of Abduction and six counts of Robbery to serve an additional 390 days; and

WHEREAS, Travion Terrell Blount, even though only 15 years old at the time of his underlying offense, was sentenced to an active period of incarceration of numerous life sentences plus 118 years; and

WHEREAS, Travion Terrell Blount, without his consent, was issued a partial pardon by Governor Robert McDonnell to reduce his sentence to 40 years, which effectively defeated Mr. Blount's claim of the unconstitutionality of his life sentence; and

WHEREAS, the co-defendants in Mr. Blount's case all accepted plea deals and were given substantially less prison time, and Mr. Blount was offered a plea deal of 14 years incarceration, reflecting the Commonwealth's judgment as to a just sentence in his case; and

WHEREAS, by counsel, Travion Terrell Blount filed his petition seeking executive clemency, specifically requesting a conditional pardon; and

WHEREAS, it appears that Mr. Blount is serving so long a sentence, not because his crimes were so grave as to justify a sentence reserved for crimes resulting in serious injury, but because he availed himself of his constitutional right to trial by jury; and

WHEREAS, Travion Terrell Blount was determined to be a proper subject for clemency by Governor Terence McAuliffe and issued a conditional and partial pardon on January 12, 2018;

NOW THEREFORE, in accordance with the provisions of Article V, Section 12 of the Constitution of Virginia, I, Ralph S. Northam, in order to clarify the January 12, 2018 order, do hereby grant Travion Terrell Blount, a Conditional and Partial Pardon for the above listed convictions received on March 12, 2008, September 15, 2008, August 17, 2009, and March 12, 2010, as well as a three-year period of supervised release. This pardon is conditioned on Mr. Blount abiding by the following conditions:

- 1.) He successfully completes the Re-entry program provided by the Virginia Department of Corrections prior to his release date.
- 2.) He enters a three-year period of supervision to be established by the Virginia Parole Board after his release from prison.
- 3.) He complies with all other conditions set by the Virginia Parole Board during his continued incarceration and supervised release, including maintaining good behavior.

The Virginia Parole Board may revoke Travion Terrell Blount's pardon, based on a violation of one or more of the conditions above, or based on a finding by the Board that he is otherwise unfit or unsuitable to be released or remain on supervision. Travion Terrell Blount shall be subject to arrest upon cause shown by the Virginia Parole Board or the Parole Officer.

Given under my hand and the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth at Richmond, this 24th day of February in the year of two thousand and twenty and this 244th year of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Brooks, Jr., John

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME – GREETINGS:

WHEREAS, John Brooks Jr. was convicted of violation of Probation Second Offense in Virginia Beach Circuit Court, May 7, 1997; Parole Violation on January 13, 1999; Robbery and Petit Larceny in Virginia Beach Circuit Court, November 23, 1999; and

WHEREAS, Cumulatively, he was sentenced to serve a life sentence plus four years and 12 months; and

WHEREAS, John Brooks Jr. filed his petition seeking executive clemency, specifically requesting a conditional pardon; and

WHEREAS, John Brooks Jr. has served a substantial period of time, in excess of 20 years on his parole ineligible life sentence; and

WHEREAS, John Brooks Jr., has demonstrated a commitment to reformation and redemption; and

WHEREAS, John Brooks Jr. appears to be a proper subject for clemency.

NOW THEREFORE, in accordance with the provisions of Article V, Section 12 of the Constitution of Virginia, I, Ralph S. Northam, do hereby grant John Brooks Jr. a Conditional Pardon for his Felony convictions effective May 14, 2020. Provided, however, that this Pardon shall be subject to Mr. Brooks Jr. accepting the following terms and conditions:

- (7) He submits to the Virginia Parole Board a home plan, which it approves;
- (8) He is supervised by Probation and Parole as directed by the Virginia Parole Board for three (3) years upon his release from the Department of Corrections;
- (9) He participates in and completes any evidence-based program(s) that he may be referred to based upon assessment and at the instruction of his parole officer. Such programs may include group sessions led by a facilitator or administered by the parole office;
- (10) He is to abide by any and all additional terms and conditions established by the Virginia Parole Board;
- (11) He releases all claims, demands, and causes of action, whether known or unknown, accrued or unaccrued, he has or may have against the Commonwealth of Virginia, as well as its political subdivisions, officials, employees, and agents that are in any way related to or arise out of Mr. Brooks' arrest or incarceration in the Virginia Department of Corrections. Mr. Brooks agrees that this release is binding on his heirs, assigns, agents, and estate;

- (12) That the terms and conditions of this Pardon shall be satisfied three (3) years from the date of Mr. Brooks' release from the Department of Corrections, provided he has complied with all the terms and conditions of this Pardon; and
- (13) If any of the foregoing terms and conditions of this Pardon are violated, Mr. Brooks shall forfeit all privileges provided under this grant of Clemency and, at my direction, shall be subject to immediate arrest and incarceration to complete the term of his original sentences.

Given under my hand and the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth at Richmond, this 14th day of May in the year of Two Thousand and Twenty and this 244th year of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Brown, Antonio Lavont

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME – GREETINGS:

WHEREAS, Antonio Lavont Brown was sentenced in Suffolk Circuit Court on June 4, 1997 for two counts of Statutory Burglary, two counts of Possession of Burglary Tools and one count of Grand Larceny;

WHEREAS, Antonio Lavont Brown was sentenced in Suffolk Circuit Court on December 22, 1997 for four counts of the Use of a Firearm in the Commission of a Felony, two counts of Malicious Wounding, two counts of Robbery, two counts of Conspiracy to Commit Robbery, one count of Attempted Robbery, and two counts of Revocation of Suspended Sentence for Forgery (original sentencing date for the Forgery is June 19, 1996);

WHEREAS, He was sentenced to serve an active period of incarceration of sixty-six years and eleven months; and

WHEREAS, Antonio Lavont Brown filed his petition seeking executive clemency, specifically requesting a conditional pardon; and

WHEREAS, Antonio Lavont Brown has served a substantial period of time, in excess of twenty-three years, of his parole ineligible sentence with thirty-six years remaining to serve until his release date in the year Two Thousand and Fifty Six; and

WHEREAS, Antonio Lavont Brown, has demonstrated an extraordinary commitment to reformation and redemption. He has achieved tremendous success and committed himself to helping others achieve success through the Virginia Department of Corrections programs for education and rehabilitation. Mr. Brown has gathered support from many individuals, including corrections officers, program facilitators, and formerly incarcerated persons in his pursuit of clemency; and

WHEREAS, it is because of Antonio Lavont Brown's exceptional rehabilitation and redemption, that a sentence of sixty-six years and eleven months, a natural life sentence, without the possibility of parole is so cruel and offensive to the principles of a civilized society; and

WHEREAS, after a careful review of all known facts and circumstances, the Virginia Parole Board recommended a conditional pardon for Antonio Lavont Brown; and

WHEREAS, Antonio Lavont Brown appears to be a proper subject for clemency; specifically for a favorable consideration of his petition for a conditional pardon;

NOW THEREFORE, in accordance with the provisions of Article V, Section 12 of the Constitution of Virginia, I, Ralph S. Northam, do hereby grant Antonio Lavont Brown, a Conditional Pardon for his felony convictions effective February 14, 2020. Provided, however, that this Conditional Pardon shall be subject to Mr. Brown accepting the following terms and conditions:

- (14) He submits to the Virginia Parole Board a home plan, which it approves;
- (15) He is supervised by Probation and Parole as directed by the Virginia Parole Board for three (3) years upon his release from the Department of Corrections;
- (16) He is to abide by any and all additional terms and conditions established by the Virginia Parole Board;
- (17) He releases all claims, demands, and causes of action, whether known or unknown, accrued or unaccrued, he has or may have against the Commonwealth of Virginia, as well as its political subdivisions, officials, employees, and agents that are in any way related to or arise out of Mr. Brown's arrest or incarceration in the Virginia Department of Corrections. Mr. Brown agrees that this release is binding on his heirs, assigns, agents, and estate;
- (18) That the terms and conditions of this Conditional Pardon shall be satisfied three (3) years from the date of Mr. Brown's release from the Department of Corrections, provided he has complied with all the terms and conditions of this Conditional Pardon; and
- (19) If any of the foregoing terms and conditions of this Conditional Pardon are violated, Mr. Brown shall forfeit all privileges provided under this grant of Clemency and, at my direction, shall be subject to immediate arrest and incarceration to complete the term of his original sentences.

Given under my hand and the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth at Richmond, this 2nd day of April in the year of Two Thousand and Twenty and this 244th year of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Bunch, Lorenzo

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME – GREETINGS:

WHEREAS, Lorenzo Bunch was convicted of one count of possession of cocaine with intent to distribute and possession of marijuana with intent to distribute in Norfolk Circuit Court on March 28, 2006;

WHEREAS, Cumulatively, he was sentenced to serve an active period of incarceration of 25 years and 12 months; and

WHEREAS, Lorenzo Bunch filed his petition seeking executive clemency, specifically requesting a conditional pardon; and

WHEREAS, Lorenzo Bunch has served a substantial period of time, in excess of thirteen years of his parole ineligible sentence; and

WHEREAS, Lorenzo Bunch, has demonstrated a commitment to reformation and redemption; and

WHEREAS, Lorenzo Bunch appears to be a proper subject for clemency.

NOW THEREFORE, in accordance with the provisions of Article V, Section 12 of the Constitution of Virginia, I, Ralph S. Northam, do hereby grant Lorenzo Bunch a Conditional Pardon for his felony convictions effective June 30, 2020. Provided, however, that this Pardon shall be subject to Mr. Bunch accepting the following terms and conditions:

- (20) He submits to the Virginia Parole Board a home plan, which it approves;
- (21) He is supervised by Probation and Parole as directed by the Virginia Parole Board for three (3) years upon his release from the Department of Corrections;
- (22) He participates in and completes any evidence-based program(s) that he may be referred to based upon assessment and at the instruction of his parole officer. Such programs may include group sessions led by a facilitator or administered by the parole office;
- (23) He is to abide by any and all additional terms and conditions established by the Virginia Parole Board;
- (24) He submits to random drug testing at the discretion of probation and parole;
- (25) He undergoes a substance abuse treatment evaluation within one year of his release from the Department of Corrections and fully complies with all resulting recommendations; and
- (26) If any of the foregoing terms and conditions of this Pardon are violated, Mr. Bunch shall forfeit all privileges provided under this grant of Clemency and, at my direction, shall be subject to immediate arrest and incarceration to complete the term of his original sentences.

Given under my hand and the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth at Richmond, this 30th day of June in the year of Two Thousand and Twenty and this 245th year of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Dickerson, Joseph Paul

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME – GREETINGS:

WHEREAS, Joseph Paul Dickerson was convicted in York County Circuit Court of two counts of Felony Distribution of Oxycodone and one count of Distribution of Fentanyl on June 3, 2008; and

WHEREAS, he was sentenced to serve an active period of incarceration of sixteen years; and

WHEREAS, Joseph Paul Dickerson filed his petition seeking executive clemency, specifically requesting a conditional pardon; and

WHEREAS, Joseph Paul Dickerson has served approximately twelve years of his sixteen year sentence with less than two years remaining to serve; and

WHEREAS, Joseph Paul Dickerson was sentenced in 2008 as a second offender. In 2009, however, in 2009 the law was updated. Had Mr. Dickerson been sentenced under the new law, he would not have been convicted as a second offender and his sentencing guidelines would have been a midpoint of six years five months, rather than sixteen years two months; and

WHEREAS, Joseph Paul Dickerson appears to be a proper subject for clemency.

NOW THEREFORE, in accordance with the provisions of Article V, Section 12 of the Constitution of Virginia, I, Ralph S. Northam, do hereby grant Joseph Paul Dickerson a Conditional Pardon for his Felony convictions effective October 28, 2020. Provided, however, that this Pardon shall be subject to Mr. Dickerson accepting the following terms and conditions:

- (1) He submits to the Virginia Parole Board a home plan, which it approves;
- (2) He is supervised by Probation and Parole as directed by the Virginia Parole Board for three (3) years upon his release from the Department of Corrections;
- (3) He participates in and completes any evidence-based program(s) that he may be referred to by and at the instruction of his parole officer;
- (4) He undergoes a substance abuse treatment evaluation within one year of his release from the Department of Corrections and fully complies with all resulting recommendations;

- (5) He abides by any and all additional terms and conditions established by the Virginia Parole Board;
- (6) He releases all claims, demands, and causes of action, whether known or unknown, accrued or unaccrued, he has or may have against the Commonwealth of Virginia, as well as its political subdivisions, officials, employees, and agents that are in any way related to or arise out of Mr. Dickerson's arrest or incarceration in the Virginia Department of Corrections. Mr. Dickerson agrees that this release is binding on his heirs, assigns, agents, and estate;
- (7) That the terms and conditions of this Pardon shall be satisfied three (3) years from the date of Mr. Dickerson's release from the Department of Corrections, provided he has complied with all the terms and conditions of this Pardon; and
- (8) If he violates any of the foregoing terms and conditions of this Pardon, Mr. Dickerson shall forfeit all privileges provided under this grant of Clemency and, at my direction, shall be subject to immediate arrest and incarceration to complete the term of his original sentences.

Given under my hand and the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth at Richmond, this 28th day of October in the year of Two Thousand and Twenty and this 245th year of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

WHEREAS, Harry Thomas Keeling Jr. was convicted of one count of Possess Cocaine with Intent to Distribute, one count of Felony Elude Police, and one count of Obstruction of Justice/Resist Arrest without Force in Roanoke City Circuit Court on October 30, 2006; and

WHEREAS, Cumulatively, he was sentenced to serve an active period of incarceration of 21 years; and

WHEREAS, Harry Thomas Keeling Jr. filed his petition seeking executive clemency, specifically requesting a conditional pardon; and

WHEREAS, Harry Thomas Keeling Jr. has served a substantial period of time, in excess of thirteen years of his parole ineligible sentence; and

WHEREAS, Harry Thomas Keeling Jr., was sentenced to more than double the sentencing guidelines, which called for a range of 4 years, 11 months to 8 years, 1 month, and he has already served more than double the mid-range point of the sentencing guidelines; and

WHEREAS, Harry Thomas Keeling Jr. appears to be a proper subject for clemency.

NOW THEREFORE, in accordance with the provisions of Article V, Section 12 of the Constitution of Virginia, I, Ralph S. Northam, do hereby grant Harry Thomas Keeling Jr. a Conditional Pardon for his felony convictions effective September 8, 2020. Provided, however, that this Pardon shall be subject to Mr. Keeling accepting the following terms and conditions:

- (32) He submits to the Virginia Parole Board a home plan, which it approves;
- (33) He is supervised by Probation and Parole as directed by the Virginia Parole Board for three (3) years upon his release from the Department of Corrections;
- (34) He participates in and completes any evidence-based program(s) that he may be referred to based upon assessment and at the instruction of his parole officer. Such programs may include group sessions led by a facilitator or administered by the parole office;
- (35) He is to abide by any and all additional terms and conditions established by the Virginia Parole Board;
- (36) He undergoes a substance abuse treatment evaluation within one year of his release from the Department of Corrections and fully complies with all resulting recommendations; and
- (37) He releases all claims, demands, and causes of action, whether known or unknown, accrued or unaccrued, he has or may have against the Commonwealth of Virginia, as well as its political subdivisions, officials, employees, and agents that are in any way related to or arise out of Mr. Keeling's arrest or incarceration in the Virginia Department of Corrections. Mr. Keeling agrees that this release is binding on his heirs, assigns, agents, and estate;
- (38) That the terms and conditions of this Pardon shall be satisfied three (3) years from the date of Mr. Keeling's release from the Department of Corrections, provided he has complied with all the terms and conditions of this Pardon; and
- (39) If any of the foregoing terms and conditions of this Pardon are violated, Mr. Keeling shall forfeit all privileges provided under this grant of Clemency and, at my direction, shall be subject to immediate arrest and incarceration to complete the term of his original sentences.

Given under my hand and the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth at Richmond, this 8th day of September in the year of Two Thousand and Twenty and this 245th year of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Rushin, Matthew

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME – GREETINGS:

WHEREAS, Matthew Rushin was sentenced in Virginia Beach Circuit Court on November 6, 2019, for two counts felony Malicious Wounding and one count felony Hit and Run; and

WHEREAS, He was sentenced to serve 50 years with an active period of incarceration of 10 years; and

WHEREAS, Matthew Rushin filed his petition seeking executive clemency, specifically requesting an absolute or conditional pardon; and

WHEREAS, the accident on January 4, 2019 did cause significant and irreversible impact to the lives of the victims, however the record lacks the requisite evidence that Matthew Rushin had the intention of causing that harm; and

WHEREAS, the sentencing guidelines for Mr. Rushin's convictions call for a sentencing range of 2 years 7 months to 6 years 4 months; and

WHEREAS, Matthew Rushin appears to be a proper subject for clemency.

NOW THEREFORE, in accordance with the provisions of Article V, Section 12 of the Constitution of Virginia, I, Ralph S. Northam, do hereby grant Matthew Rushin a Conditional and Partial Pardon for the above listed convictions, reducing his sentence of fifty years with ten years of active incarceration to ten years for each conviction with seven years five months suspended on each, to run concurrently, with credit for time spent for any confinement while awaiting trial on these charges and any earned sentence credits, effective November 6, 2020. Provided, however, that this Pardon shall be subject to Mr. Rushin accepting the following terms and conditions:

- 1) He submits to the Virginia Parole Board a home plan, which it approves;
- 2) He is supervised by Probation and Parole as directed by the Virginia Parole Board for five years upon his release from the Department of Corrections;
- 3) He participates in and satisfactorily completes any evidence-based program(s) that he may be referred to based upon assessment and at the instruction of his parole officer.

Such programs may include group sessions led by a facilitator or administered by the probation and parole office;

- 4) He remains under regular care of a licensed mental health provider and complies with all treatment recommendations, including compliance with all medications as prescribed;
- 5) He undergoes a substance abuse treatment evaluation within one year of his release from the Department of Corrections and fully complies with all resulting recommendations;
- 6) He abides by any and all additional terms and conditions established by the Virginia Parole Board;
- 7) Consistent with the court sentencing order, Matthew Rushin is prohibited from operating a motor vehicle for the remainder of his life. After ten years, however, from the date of this pardon, he may petition the Virginia Beach Circuit Court or the Virginia Circuit Court in the jurisdiction in which he resides for restoration of his driving privileges;
- 8) Matthew Rushin may not own or possess a firearm during his lifetime;
- 9) Matthew Rushin shall have no contact with the victims, including the Cusicks, the Grahams, Mr. Wentz, Ms. Fang, or their families, unless specifically approved in advance by the probation officer or, once supervision has been terminated, with prior approval of the Virginia Beach Circuit Court or the Virginia Circuit Court in the jurisdiction in which he resides. This includes no third-party contact on behalf of Matthew Rushin;
- 10) He releases all claims, demands, and causes of action, whether known or unknown, accrued or unaccrued, he has or may have against the Commonwealth of Virginia, as well as its political subdivisions, officials, employees, and agents that are in any way related to or arise out of Mr. Rushin's arrest or incarceration in the Virginia Department of Corrections. Mr. Rushin agrees that this release is binding on his heirs, assigns, agents, and estate;
- 11) With the exception of paragraphs seven, eight, nine, and ten, the terms and conditions of this Pardon shall be satisfied ten years from the date of this order, provided he has complied with all its terms and conditions; and
- 12) If any of the foregoing terms and conditions of this Pardon are violated, Mr. Rushin may be subject to arrest and incarceration to complete up to the remainder of his commuted sentence of ten years.

Given under my hand and the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth at Richmond, this 6th day of November in the year of Two Thousand and Twenty and this 245th year of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

- King William Circuit Court, October 30, 2001;
- Orange Circuit Court , October 25, 2001; and
- Spotsylvania Circuit Court , April 17, 2002; and

WHEREAS, Cumulatively, he was sentenced to serve an active period of incarceration of 41 years and 102 months; and

WHEREAS, Raymond Anthony Winkler filed his petition seeking executive clemency, specifically requesting a conditional pardon; and

WHEREAS, Raymond Anthony Winkler has served a substantial period of time, in excess of nineteen years of his parole ineligible sentence with nearly twenty-four years remaining to serve; and

WHEREAS, Raymond Anthony Winkler, has demonstrated a commitment to reformation and redemption; and

WHEREAS, Raymond Anthony Winkler appears to be a proper subject for clemency.

NOW THEREFORE, in accordance with the provisions of Article V, Section 12 of the Constitution of Virginia, I, Ralph S. Northam, do hereby grant Raymond Anthony Winkler a Conditional Pardon for his felony and misdemeanors convictions effective April 16, 2020. Provided, however, that this Pardon shall be subject to Mr. Winkler accepting the following terms and conditions:

- (33) He submits to the Virginia Parole Board a home plan, which it approves;

- (34) He is supervised by Probation and Parole as directed by the Virginia Parole Board for three (3) years upon his release from the Department of Corrections;
- (35) He is to abide by any and all additional terms and conditions established by the Virginia Parole Board;
- (36) He releases all claims, demands, and causes of action, whether known or unknown, accrued or unaccrued, he has or may have against the Commonwealth of Virginia, as well as its political subdivisions, officials, employees, and agents that are in any way related to or arise out of Mr. Winkler's arrest or incarceration in the Virginia Department of Corrections. Mr. Winkler agrees that this release is binding on his heirs, assigns, agents, and estate;
- (37) That the terms and conditions of this Pardon shall be satisfied three (3) years from the date of Mr. Winkler's release from the Department of Corrections, provided he has complied with all the terms and conditions of this Pardon; and
- (38) If any of the foregoing terms and conditions of this Pardon are violated, Mr. Winkler shall forfeit all privileges provided under this grant of Clemency and, at my direction, shall be subject to immediate arrest and incarceration to complete the term of his original sentences.

Given under my hand and the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth at Richmond, this 16th day of April in the year of Two Thousand and Twenty and this 244th year of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Partial Pardons

Shafik, Maten Abdul

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME – GREETINGS:

WHEREAS, Maten Abdul Shafik was convicted in the Circuit Court for the County of Arlington on September 28, 1990, of two counts of Distribution of Cocaine. He received two five-year sentences, to be served concurrently, with four years suspended and a five year probationary period on each; and

WHEREAS, Maten Abdul Shafik submitted a petition for executive clemency; and

WHEREAS, Maten Abdul Shafik wishes to become a United States citizen and is impeded from doing so because of his two convictions and a sentence of incarceration for five years on each; and

WHEREAS, Maten Abdul Shafik petitioned for executive clemency, requesting a reduction in his sentence to less than 365 days; and

WHEREAS, Maten Abdul Shafik appears to be a proper subject for executive clemency, specifically for favorable consideration of his petition for a commutation of each of his sentences to 360 days; and

WHEREAS, the Supreme Court of Virginia ruled that such a reduction in the length of a sentence constitutes a partial pardon within the authority of the Governor;

NOW THEREFORE, in accordance with the provisions of Article V, Section 12 of the Constitution of Virginia, I, Ralph S. Northam, do hereby grant Maten Abdul Shafik, a Partial Pardon for his convictions of Distribution of Cocaine, effective February 6, 2020, reducing his previously imposed five-year sentences to 360 days each.

Given under my hand and the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth at Richmond, this 6th day of February in the year of two thousand and twenty and this 244th year of the Commonwealth of Virginia.
