Absolute Pardons

Barnes, Lamar

TO ALL WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME – GREETINGS:

WHEREAS, Lamar Barnes was convicted in the Circuit Court of the City of Portsmouth on August 1, 2003, of Murder, Malicious Wounding, and Use of a Firearm in the Commission of a Felony (two counts); and

WHEREAS, Mr. Barnes was sentenced by a jury to life plus twenty-eight years in prison; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Barnes has served nearly twenty years of his parole ineligible sentence; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Barnes, through the University of Virginia Innocence Project, submitted a petition for clemency seeking an absolute pardon based on the circumstances surrounding his innocence; and

WHEREAS, post-conviction investigation revealed constitutional violations during Mr. Barnes' trial such as inappropriate interference by the Commonwealth Attorney at the time of the trial; and

WHEREAS, further violations of Mr. Barnes' due process were discovered including the Commonwealth's presentation of false testimony and suppression of exculpatory evidence during the trial; and

WHEREAS, all eyewitnesses have since recanted their identification of Mr. Barnes as the assailant and one has since admitted they were being blackmailed by law enforcement to testify against Mr. Barnes; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Barnes had a corroborated alibi for the time of the crime, which was disregarded at trial; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Barnes has served nearly two decades in prison for a crime he did not commit; and

WHEREAS, upon careful deliberation and review of all the information and circumstances of the matter, I have decided it is just and appropriate to grant this ABSOLUTE PARDON that reflects Lamar Barnes' innocence of Murder, Malicious Wounding, and Use of a Firearm in the Commission of a Felony (two counts), for which he was convicted on August 1, 2003;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Ralph S. Northam, Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia, in accordance with the authority granted to me under Article V, Section 12 of the Constitution of Virginia, do hereby grant unto Lamar Barnes this Absolute Pardon from the convictions handed down by the Circuit Court of the City of Portsmouth on August 1, 2003.

Given under my hand and the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth at Richmond, this 4th day of January in the year of Two Thousand and Twenty-Two and this 246th year of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Carter, Joseph

TO ALL WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME – GREETINGS:

WHEREAS, Joseph Carter was convicted in the Circuit Court of the City of Norfolk on June 27, 1990, of four felonies: First Degree Murder, Attempted Robbery, Robbery, and Statutory Burglary; and

WHEREAS, Joseph Carter was sentenced to a life sentence for the First Degree Murder conviction, five years for the Attempted Robbery conviction, 25 years for the Robbery conviction, and a life sentence for the Burglary conviction; and

WHEREAS, Joseph Carter served 26 years and 11 months in the Virginia Department of Corrections before being paroled in 2016; and

WHEREAS, Joseph Carter remained infraction free for his final 16 years in prison; and

WHEREAS, Joseph Carter was released from parole supervision six years early in 2020 with no violations committed during his supervision; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Carter, through counsel, submitted a petition for clemency seeking an absolute pardon based on the circumstances surrounding his innocence, including insufficient evidence to support a guilty verdict, strong chance of witness misidentification, lack of motive, and lack of blood sample analysis; and

WHEREAS, since earning parole five years ago, Mr. Carter has had no new arrests and maintained steady employment until he was no longer able to work due to worsening symptoms of his diagnosed Spinal Stenosis; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Carter was an unfortunate victim of Norfolk Detective Glenn Ford, who used his official capacity to extort witnesses in order to yield high solvability percentages and was eventually convicted on federal charges; and

WHEREAS, upon careful deliberation and review of all the information and circumstances of the matter, I have decided it is just and appropriate to grant this ABSOLUTE PARDON that reflects Mr. Carter’s innocence of First Degree Murder, Attempted Robbery, Robbery, and Statutory Burglary for which he was convicted on June 27, 1990;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Ralph S. Northam, Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia, in accordance with the authority granted to me under Article V, Section 12 of the Constitution of Virginia, do hereby grant unto Mr. Joseph Carter this Absolute Pardon from the convictions handed down by the Circuit Court of the City of Norfolk on June 27, 1990.

Given under my hand and the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth at Richmond, this 13th day of August in the year of two thousand and twenty-one and this 246th year of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Morman, Jr., Bobbie James

TO ALL WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME – GREETINGS:

WHEREAS, Bobbie James Morman, Jr. was convicted in the Circuit Court of the City of Norfolk on November 30, 1993, of seven felonies: three counts of Attempted Malicious Wounding, three counts of Use of a Firearm in the Commission of a Felony, and one count of Possession of a Firearm by Convicted Felon.

WHEREAS, Mr. Morman was sentenced by a jury to 48 years in prison; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Morman served 22 years in the Virginia Department of Corrections before being paroled in 2016; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Morman, through counsel, submitted a petition for clemency seeking an absolute pardon based on the circumstances surrounding his innocence, including the repeated confession of the actual perpetrator; and

WHEREAS, since earning parole five years ago, Mr. Morman has had no new arrests and has maintained steady employment; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Morman has been diagnosed with post-traumatic stress disorder due to the convictions that led him to serve over two decades in prison for crimes that he did not commit; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Morman has gained the support from a wide coalition of advocates including legislators and community leaders; and

WHEREAS, upon careful deliberation and review of all the information and circumstances of the matter, I have decided it is just and appropriate to grant this ABSOLUTE PARDON that reflects Mr. Morman's innocence of three counts of Attempted Malicious Wounding, three counts of Use of a Firearm in the Commission of a Felony, and one count of Possession of a Firearm by Convicted Felon for which he was convicted on November 30, 1993;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Ralph S. Northam, Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia, in accordance with the authority granted to me under Article V, Section 12 of the Constitution of Virginia, do hereby grant unto Bobbie James Morman, Jr. this Absolute Pardon from the convictions handed down by the Circuit Court of the City of Norfolk on November 30, 1993.

Given under my hand and the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth at Richmond, this 14th day of July in the year of two thousand and twenty-one and this 246th year of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Stevens, Emerson Eugene

TO ALL WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME – GREETINGS:

WHEREAS, Emerson Eugene Stevens was convicted in the Circuit Court of the County of Lancaster on July 12, 1986, of two felonies: Abduction with Intent to Defile and First-Degree Murder; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Stevens was sentenced by a jury to 65 years in prison for the Abduction with Intent to Defile conviction; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Stevens was sentenced by a jury to 99 years and one day in prison for the First-Degree murder conviction; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Stevens served 32 years in the Virginia Department of Corrections before being paroled in 2017; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Stevens, through the University of Virginia Innocence Project, submitted a petition for clemency seeking an absolute pardon based on the circumstances surrounding his innocence, including the decision of the United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit finding that Mr. Stevens had presented sufficient evidence of his innocence; and

WHEREAS, the Fourth Circuit went on to encourage the Governor to exercise his pardon power in Mr. Stevens' case, noting that the executive's power and responsibility both before and after conviction remain fundamental in our system of divided powers; and

WHEREAS, in Judge Stephanie Thacker's concurring opinion, she stated that the evidence as a whole overwhelmingly supports a conclusion that no reasonable jury would have convicted [Mr.] Stevens; and

WHEREAS, since earning parole four years ago, Mr. Stevens has had no new arrests and has maintained steady employment; and

WHEREAS, upon careful deliberation and review of all the information and circumstances of the matter, I have decided it is just and appropriate to grant this ABSOLUTE PARDON that reflects Mr. Stevens' innocence of Abduction with Intent to Defile and First-Degree Murder, for which he was convicted on July 12, 1986;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Ralph S. Northam, Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia, in accordance with the authority granted to me under Article V, Section 12 of the Constitution of Virginia, do hereby grant unto Emerson Eugene Stevens this Absolute Pardon from the convictions handed down by the Circuit Court of the County of Lancaster on July 12, 1986.

Given under my hand and the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth at Richmond, this 13th day of August in the year of two thousand and twenty-one and this 246th year of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Tillman, Jervon Michael

TO ALL WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME – GREETINGS:

WHEREAS, Jervon Michael Tillman was convicted in the Circuit Court of the County of Henrico of Robbery, Use of a Firearm in the Commission of a Felony, and Wearing a Mask and sentenced on February 24, 2010 to twenty-five years of active incarceration; and

WHEREAS, Jervon Michael Tillman has served nearly twelve years of his sentence; and

WHEREAS, Jervon Michael Tillman, through the University of Virginia Innocence Project, submitted a petition for clemency seeking an absolute pardon based on the circumstances surrounding his innocence; and

WHEREAS, a post-conviction investigation revealed prosecutors from various jurisdictions have called the trial proceedings troubling, with "glaring red flags", and one went further to say that "no office that reasonably attempts to observe best prosecution practices would take this case to trial"; and

WHEREAS, it does not appear that the prosecutor ever turned over the entirety of the victim's initial description of the perpetrator or exculpatory evidence to defense counsel; and

WHEREAS, the only evidence against Jervon Michael Tillman was a bad identification made in the dark, at night, while the perpetrator was wearing a mask; and

WHEREAS, Jervon Michael Tillman was identified under suggestive circumstances; and

WHEREAS, in result of this miscarriage of justice, Jervon Michael Tillman has served over a decade in prison for a crime he did not commit; and

WHEREAS, upon careful deliberation and review of all the information and circumstances of the matter, I have decided it is just and appropriate to grant this ABSOLUTE PARDON that reflects Jervon Michael Tillman's innocence of Robbery, Use of a Firearm in the Commission of a Felony, and Wearing a Mask, for which he was sentenced on February 24, 2010;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Ralph S. Northam, Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia, in accordance with the authority granted to me under Article V, Section 12 of the Constitution of Virginia, do hereby grant unto Jervon Michael Tillman this Absolute Pardon from the convictions handed down by the Circuit Court of the County of Henrico on February 24, 2010.

Given under my hand and the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth at Richmond, this 13th day of January in the year of two thousand and twenty-one and this 246th year of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Weakley, Eric Glenn

TO ALL WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME – GREETINGS:

WHEREAS, Eric Glenn Weakley pled guilty in the Circuit Court of the City of Culpeper on June 13, 2001, of Second Degree Murder; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Weakley was sentenced to twenty years of incarceration with thirteen years and four months suspended; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Weakley served six years and eight months in the Virginia Department of Corrections before being released on probation; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Weakley was pressured by law enforcement to accept responsibility for a crime he did not commit; and

WHEREAS, one of Mr. Weakley's co-defendants was acquitted by a jury and the other had their capital murder conviction thrown out by United States District Court Judge James Turk; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Weakley, through the University of Virginia Innocence Project, submitted a petition for clemency seeking an absolute pardon based on the circumstances surrounding his innocence, including the decision of the United States District Court for the Western District of Virginia finding that Mr. Weakley's recantation of his confession was reliable and corroborated; and

WHEREAS, upon careful deliberation and review of all the information and circumstances of the matter, I have decided it is just and appropriate to grant this ABSOLUTE PARDON that reflects Mr. Weakley's innocence of Second Degree Murder, for which he was convicted on June 13, 2001;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Ralph S. Northam, Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia, in accordance with the authority granted to me under Article V, Section 12 of the Constitution of Virginia, do hereby grant unto Eric Glenn Weakley this Absolute Pardon from the convictions handed down by the Circuit Court of the City of Culpeper on June 13, 2003.

Given under my hand and the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth at Richmond, this 3rd day of January in the year of Two Thousand and Twenty-Two and this 246th year of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Whitaker, Mark Micaiah

TO ALL WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME – GREETINGS:

WHEREAS, Mark Micaiah Whitaker was convicted in the Circuit Court of the City of Portsmouth on September 26, 2018, of Forgery (three counts); and

WHEREAS, Mr. Whitaker, through his attorneys, submitted a petition for clemency seeking an absolute pardon; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Whitaker had no previous criminal record prior to these convictions and continues to be a leader and advocate in the Portsmouth community; and

WHEREAS, upon careful deliberation and review of all the information and circumstances of the matter, I have decided it is just and appropriate to grant this ABSOLUTE PARDON that reflects Mr. Whitaker's innocence of Forgery, for which he was convicted on September 26, 2018;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Ralph S. Northam, Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia, in accordance with the authority granted to me under Article V, Section 12 of the Constitution of Virginia, do hereby grant unto Mark Micaiah Whitaker this Absolute Pardon from the convictions handed down by the Circuit Court of the City of Portsmouth on September 26, 2018.

Given under my hand and the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth at Richmond, this 4th day of January in the year of Two Thousand and Twenty-Two and this 246th year of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Wynkoop, Phillip Theodore Roosevelt

TO ALL WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME – GREETINGS:

WHEREAS, Phillip Theodore Roosevelt Wynkoop was convicted in Circuit Court of the County of Accomack on December 20, 2012, of Grand Larceny; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Wynkoop, through his attorneys, submitted a petition for clemency seeking an absolute pardon; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Wynkoop has met all costs, fines, and sentence obligations; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Wynkoop received a simple pardon for this conviction on September 15, 2021 and previously had his civil rights restored; and

WHEREAS, upon careful deliberation and review of all the information and circumstances of the matter, I have decided it is just and appropriate to grant this ABSOLUTE PARDON to Mr. Wynkoop for his conviction of Grand Larceny, for which he was convicted on December 20, 2012;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Ralph S. Northam, Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia, in accordance with the authority granted to me under Article V, Section 12 of the Constitution of Virginia, do hereby grant unto Phillip Theodore Roosevelt Wynkoop this Absolute Pardon from the conviction handed down by the Circuit Court of the County of Accomack on December 20, 2012.

Given under my hand and the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth at Richmond, this 12th day of January in the year of Two Thousand and Twenty-Two and this 246th year of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Conditional Pardons

Abraham, Alan Kenneth

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME – GREETINGS:

WHEREAS, Alan Kenneth Abraham was convicted in the Prince William County Circuit Court of Capital Murder, Robbery, Kidnap/Abduction, and Carjacking, and was sentenced on August 21, 1998 to serve a life sentence; and

WHEREAS, Alan Kenneth Abraham filed his petition seeking executive clemency, specifically requesting a conditional pardon; and

WHEREAS, Alan Kenneth Abraham was struggling with substance abuse at the time of his offenses; and

WHEREAS, Alan Kenneth Abraham has served over twenty-three years of his parole ineligible sentence; and

WHEREAS, Alan Kenneth Abraham has demonstrated a commitment to rehabilitation and redemption and appears to be a proper subject for clemency.

NOW THEREFORE, in accordance with the provisions of Article V, Section 12 of the Constitution of Virginia, I, Ralph S. Northam, do hereby grant Alan Kenneth Abraham a Conditional and Partial Pardon for the above listed convictions to reduce his sentence to time served, effective January 10, 2022. Provided, however, that this Pardon shall be subject to Mr. Abraham accepting the following terms and conditions:

- (1) He submits to the Virginia Parole Board a home plan, which it approves;
- (2) He is supervised by Probation and Parole for three (3) years upon his release from the Department of Corrections;
- (3) He participates in and completes any evidence-based program(s) that he may be referred to based upon assessment and at the instruction of his parole officer. Such programs may include group sessions led by a facilitator or administered by the parole office;
- (4) He undergoes a substance abuse treatment evaluation within one year of his release from the Department of Corrections and fully complies with all resulting recommendations;
- (5) Alan Kenneth Abraham shall have no contact with the victims or their families, unless specifically approved in advance by the probation officer or, once supervision has been terminated, with prior approval of the Price William Circuit Court or the Virginia Circuit Court in the jurisdiction in which he resides. This includes no third-party contact on behalf of Alan Kenneth Abraham;

- (6) He releases all claims, demands, and causes of action, whether known or unknown, accrued or unaccrued, he has or may have against the Commonwealth of Virginia, as well as its political subdivisions, officials, employees, and agents that are in any way related to or arise out of Mr. Abraham's arrest or incarceration in the Virginia Department of Corrections. Mr. Abraham agrees that this release is binding on his heirs, assigns, agents, and estate;
- (7) That the terms and conditions of this Pardon shall be satisfied three (3) years from the date of Mr. Abraham's release from the Department of Corrections, provided he has complied with all the terms and conditions of this Pardon; and
- (8) If any of the foregoing terms and conditions of this Pardon are violated, Mr. Abraham shall forfeit all privileges provided under this grant of Clemency and, at my direction, shall be subject to immediate arrest and incarceration to complete the term of his original sentences.

Given under my hand and the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth at Richmond, this 7th day of January in the year of Two Thousand and Twenty-Two and this 246th year of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Allah, Sincere Born

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME – GREETINGS:

WHEREAS, Sincere Born Allah was convicted in Lynchburg Circuit Court of Arson, First Degree Homicide, and Use of a Firearm in the Commission of a Felony and sentenced on August 30, 1999 to forty-five years of incarceration; and

WHEREAS, Sincere Born Allah filed his petition seeking executive clemency, specifically requesting a conditional pardon; and

WHEREAS, Sincere Born Allah has already served over twenty years of his sentence; and

WHEREAS, Sincere Born Allah was eighteen years old at the time of his crimes and has spent more of his life incarcerated than he has a free man; and

WHEREAS, Sincere Born Allah has demonstrated a commitment to reformation and redemption; and

WHEREAS, Sincere Born Allah appears to be a proper subject for clemency.

NOW THEREFORE, in accordance with the provisions of Article V, Section 12 of the Constitution of Virginia, I, Ralph S. Northam, do hereby grant Sincere Born Allah, a Conditional Pardon for his felony convictions listed above, commuting his sentence to time served effective January 13, 2022. Provided, however, that this Pardon shall be subject to Mr. Allah accepting the following terms and conditions:

- (1) He submits to the Virginia Department of Corrections a home plan, which it approves;
- (2) He is supervised by Probation and Parole for three (3) years upon his release from the Department of Corrections;
- (3) He participates in and completes any evidence-based program(s) that he may be referred to based upon assessment and at the instruction of his parole officer. Such programs may include group sessions led by a facilitator or administered by the parole office.
- (4) He undergoes a substance abuse treatment evaluation within one year of his release from the Department of Corrections and fully complies with all resulting recommendations;
- (5) He releases all claims, demands, and causes of action, whether known or unknown, accrued or unaccrued, he has or may have against the Commonwealth of Virginia, as well as its political subdivisions, officials, employees, and agents that are in any way related to or arise out of Mr. Allah's arrest or incarceration in the Virginia Department of Corrections. Mr. Allah agrees that this release is binding on his heirs, assigns, agents, and estate;
- (6) That the terms and conditions of this Pardon shall be satisfied three (3) years from the date of Mr. Allah's release from the Department of Corrections, provided he has complied with all the terms and conditions of this Pardon; and
- (7) If any of the foregoing terms and conditions of this Pardon are violated, Mr. Allah shall forfeit all privileges provided under this grant of Clemency and, at my direction, shall be subject to immediate arrest and incarceration to complete the term of his original sentences.

Given under my hand and the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth at Richmond, this 12th day of January in the year of Two Thousand and Twenty-Two and this 246th year of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Amin, Basheer Talal

Mr. Bellamy agrees that this release is binding on his heirs, assigns, agents, and estate;
- (6) That the terms and conditions of this Pardon shall be satisfied three (3) years from the date of Mr. Bellamy's release from the Virginia Department of Corrections, provided he has complied with all the terms and conditions of this Pardon; and
- (7) If any of the foregoing terms and conditions of this Pardon are violated, Mr. Bellamy shall forfeit all privileges provided under this grant of Clemency and, at my direction, shall be subject to immediate arrest and incarceration to complete the term of his original sentences.

Given under my hand and the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth at Richmond, this 14th day of January in the year of Two Thousand and Twenty-Two and this 246th year of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Blount, Sr., Donnell J.

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME – GREETINGS:

WHEREAS, Donell Jermaine Blount, Sr. was sentenced in the Circuit Court for the City of Portsmouth on June 6, 2001 for Abduction, Use of a Firearm (three counts), Robbery, Armed Statutory Burglary, and Grand Larceny; and

WHEREAS, he was sentenced to serve an active period of incarceration of forty-eight years; and

WHEREAS, Donell Jermaine Blount Sr.'s sentence exceeded the highpoint of Virginia's sentencing guidelines of twenty-three years of incarceration by over forty years; and

WHEREAS, Donell Jermaine Blount, Sr. filed his petition seeking executive clemency, specifically requesting a conditional pardon; and

WHEREAS, Donell Jermaine Blount, Sr. has served a substantial amount of his parole ineligible sentence with over twenty years more to serve; and

WHEREAS, Donell Jermaine Blount, Sr. has demonstrated a commitment to reformation and redemption, specifically by participating in fifteen rehabilitative courses and maintained steady employment while incarcerated; and

WHEREAS, Donell Jermaine Blount, Sr. has gathered support from broad coalition of elected officials and community leaders in his pursuit of clemency; and

WHEREAS, Donell Jermaine Blount, Sr. appears to be a proper subject for clemency.

NOW THEREFORE, in accordance with the provisions of Article V, Section 12 of the Constitution of Virginia, I, Ralph S. Northam, do hereby grant Donell Jermaine Blount, Sr. a Conditional Pardon for the above listed convictions to time served, effective December 1, 2022, aligning his sentence with Virginia's sentencing guidelines. Provided, however, that this Pardon shall be subject to Mr. Blount accepting the following terms and conditions:

- (1) He submits to the Virginia Parole Board a home plan, which it approves;
- (2) He is supervised by Probation and Parole as directed by the Virginia Parole Board for three years upon his release from the Department of Corrections;
- (3) He participates in and completes an anger management program, a communication program, and any evidence-based program(s) that he may be referred to based upon assessment and at the instruction of his parole officer. Such programs may include group sessions led by a facilitator or administered by the parole office.
- (4) He undergoes a substance abuse treatment evaluation within one year of his release from the Department of Corrections and fully complies with all resulting recommendations;

- (5) He is to abide by any and all additional terms and conditions established by the Virginia Parole Board;
- (6) He releases all claims, demands, and causes of action, whether known or unknown, accrued or unaccrued, he has or may have against the Commonwealth of Virginia, as well as its political subdivisions, officials, employees, and agents that are in any way related to or arise out of Mr. Blount's arrest or incarceration in the Virginia Department of Corrections. Mr. Blount agrees that this release is binding on his heirs, assigns, agents, and estate;
- (7) That the terms and conditions of this Pardon shall be satisfied three (3) years from the date of Mr. Blount's release from the Department of Corrections, provided he has complied with all the terms and conditions of this Pardon; and
- (8) If any of the foregoing terms and conditions of this Pardon are violated, Mr. Blount shall forfeit all privileges provided under this grant of Clemency and, at my direction, shall be subject to immediate arrest and incarceration to complete the term of his original sentences.

Given under my hand and the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth at Richmond, this 27th day of August in the year of Two Thousand and Twenty-One and this 246th year of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Bowman, Amber Elizabeth

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME – GREETINGS:

WHEREAS, Amber Elizabeth Bowman was convicted in the Circuit Court of Stafford County on April 6, 2018 of a Probation Violation for the underlying convictions of Third Offense Larceny (3 counts), Larceny with Intent to sell or Distribute (4 counts), Sale of Stolen Property, and Concealment of Merchandise (2 counts) and was sentenced to a total of 16 years of active incarceration; and

WHEREAS, Amber Elizabeth Bowman filed her petition seeking executive clemency, specifically requesting a conditional pardon; and

WHEREAS, Amber Elizabeth Bowman's petition is supported by Stafford County Commonwealth's Attorney Eric Olson, whose office originally prosecuted Ms. Bowman; and

WHEREAS, Amber Elizabeth Bowman's probation violation was a result of her drug addiction, and not another criminal offense; and

WHEREAS, Amber Elizabeth Bowman received a sentence far greater than her co-defendant and other probation violators who committed far more serious offenses; and

WHEREAS, Amber Elizabeth Bowman has demonstrated a commitment to rehabilitation and redemption; and

WHEREAS, Amber Elizabeth Bowman appears to be a proper subject for clemency.

NOW THEREFORE, in accordance with the provisions of Article V, Section 12 of the Constitution of Virginia, I, Ralph S. Northam, do hereby grant Amber Elizabeth Bowman, a Conditional Pardon for her felony convictions listed above, reducing her sentence to time served, effective January 10, 2022. Provided, however, that this Pardon shall be subject to Mr. Bowman accepting the following terms and conditions:

- (8) If any of the foregoing terms and conditions of this Pardon are violated, Mr. Brailey shall forfeit all privileges provided under this grant of Clemency and, at my direction, shall be subject to immediate arrest and incarceration to complete the term of his original sentences.

Given under my hand and the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth at Richmond, this 7th day of January in the year of Two Thousand and Twenty-Two and this 246th year of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Bustillo, Mario Alberto

TO ALL WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME – GREETINGS:

WHEREAS, Mario Alberto Bustillo was convicted by a judge in the General District Court of Fairfax County on September 15, 1997, of petit larceny (two counts) and was sentenced to a suspended sentence of incarceration of 180 days and placed on court supervised probation; and

WHEREAS, Mario Alberto Bustillo was convicted by a jury in the Circuit Court of Fairfax County on July 17, 1998, of one count of murder in the first degree, and was sentenced to an active period of incarceration of 30 years and two years post release supervision; and

WHEREAS, after Mario Alberto Bustillo was convicted of murder, his suspended sentence was imposed; and

WHEREAS, Mario Alberto Bustillo filed his petition on June 30, 2017 seeking executive clemency, specifically requesting a conditional pardon; and

WHEREAS, Mario Alberto Bustillo is a native of Honduras and upon release will return to Honduras, where he plans to live with family and use his skills in business, trucking, cleaning, and electrical systems to find employment; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Bustillo has participated in numerous educational and rehabilitation programs while incarcerated, including completing his General Education Diploma and earning an Associate's Degree in Business Management from Germanna Community College; and

WHEREAS, Mario Alberto Bustillo has garnered the support of his counselors during his incarceration who describe Mr. Bustillo as respectful and helpful; and

WHEREAS, Mario Alberto Bustillo appears to meet the qualifications for clemency, specifically for consideration of his petition for a conditional pardon;

NOW THEREFORE, in accordance with the provisions of Article V, Section 12 of the Constitution of Virginia, I, Ralph S. Northam, do hereby grant Mario Alberto Bustillo a Conditional Pardon for the above listed convictions received on September 15, 1997 and July 17, 1998, reducing his sentence to time-served. This pardon is conditioned on Mr. Bustillo abiding by the following:

- 1.) He remains in Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) custody until travel documents can be obtained from Honduras for his deportation and he is deported.
- 2.) He agrees to a voluntary deportation from the United States to Honduras or any country that accepts him.
- 3.) If he is released into the community on ICE supervision, if he fails to be deported, or if he does not voluntarily deport, he will be found in violation of this pardon's conditions and returned to Virginia Department of Corrections custody to serve the remainder of his sentence immediately.
- 4.) If he ever returns to the United States, he will serve the remainder of his sentence.

The Virginia Parole Board may revoke Mario Alberto Bustillo's pardon, based on a violation of one or more of the conditions above, or based on a finding by the Board that he is otherwise unfit or unsuitable to remain on supervision. Mario Alberto Bustillo shall be subject to arrest upon cause shown by the Virginia Parole Board or the Parole Officer.

Given under my hand and the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth at Richmond, this 30th day of July in the year of two thousand and twenty-one and this 246th year of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Crosson, Jesse Luke

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME – GREETINGS:

WHEREAS, Jesse Luke Crosson was convicted in Albemarle County Circuit Court on May 16, 2003 of 12 felonies including Breaking and Entering While Armed with a Deadly Weapon, Abduction with the Intent to Gain Pecuniary Benefit, Conspire to Commit Breaking and Entering, Robbery, Use of a Firearm in Abduction, Use of a Firearm in Robbery, Maliciously Shoot at Occupied Vehicle (four counts), and Unlawful Wounding (two counts); and

WHEREAS, Jesse Luke Crosson was sentenced to serve 138 years of incarceration with 106 years suspended, yielding an active sentence of 32 years; and

WHEREAS, Jesse Luke Crosson's sentence was unconscionably excessive and the active sentence is almost twice the length of the high end of the sentencing guideline; and

WHEREAS, Jesse Luke Crosson has served nearly 18 years – half his life – of his sentence, more time than the high end of the sentencing guideline; and

WHEREAS, Jesse Luke Crosson filed his petition seeking executive clemency, specifically requesting a conditional pardon; and

WHEREAS, Jesse Luke Crosson was less than a month past his eighteenth birthday when these offenses occurred; and

WHEREAS, very little separates a seventeen-year and 11 month old from an eighteen-year and one month old, bringing into question the assessment of culpability; and

WHEREAS, the United States Supreme Court recognizes age as a mitigating factor in Roper v. Simmons, and this factor was not recognized in Jesse Luke Crosson's case; and

WHEREAS, Jesse Luke Crosson has demonstrated exemplary rehabilitation efforts, participating in numerous institutional programs, maintained steady employment, earned a Bachelor's Degree with Honors from Ohio University, and served as a mentor and resource for other offenders; and

WHEREAS, Jesse Luke Crosson has taken full responsibility for his offenses, stating that he plans to obtain a Master's Degree in Counseling or Psychology and eventually seek licensure and employment as a Substance Abuse Counselor, a field that he now has a passion for due to his own experiences; and

WHEREAS, Jesse Luke Crosson has received encouraging recommendations from a broad coalition of individuals, including 109 individual letters of support; and

WHEREAS, Jesse Luke Crosson appears to be a proper subject for clemency.

NOW THEREFORE, in accordance with the provisions of Article V, Section 12 of the Constitution of Virginia, I, Ralph S. Northam, do hereby grant Jesse Luke Crosson a Conditional Pardon for the above listed convictions, reducing his sentence to time-served, as well as a three-year period of supervised release. Provided, however, that this Pardon shall be subject to Mr. Crosson accepting the following terms and conditions:

- 1) He submits to the Virginia Parole Board a home plan, which it approves;

- 2) He is supervised by Probation and Parole as directed by the Virginia Parole Board for three years upon his release from the Department of Corrections;
- 3) He participates in and satisfactorily completes any evidence-based program(s) that he may be referred to based upon assessment and at the instruction of his parole officer. Such programs may include group sessions led by a facilitator or administered by the probation and parole office;
- 4) He undergoes a substance abuse treatment evaluation within one year of his release from the Department of Corrections and fully complies with all resulting recommendations;
- 5) He shall have no contact with the victims, unless specifically approved in advance by the probation officer or, once supervision has been terminated, with prior approval of the Albemarle Circuit Court or the Virginia Circuit Court in the jurisdiction in which he resides. This includes no third-party contact on behalf of Mr. Crosson;
- 6) He releases all claims, demands, and causes of action, whether known or unknown, accrued or unaccrued, he has or may have against the Commonwealth of Virginia, as well as its political subdivisions, officials, employees, and agents that are in any way related to or arise out of Mr. Crosson's arrest or incarceration in the Virginia Department of Corrections. Mr. Crosson agrees that this release is binding on his heirs, assigns, agents, and estate;
- 7) He abides by any and all additional terms and conditions established by the Virginia Parole Board;
- 8) If any of the foregoing terms and conditions of this Pardon are violated, Mr. Crosson may be subject to arrest and incarceration to complete up to the remainder of his commuted sentence.

Given under my hand and the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth at Richmond, this 13th day of August in the year of Two Thousand and Twenty-One and this 246th year of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

WHEREAS, Mr. Green has taken full responsibility for his offenses, stating that he plans to continue his work as a role model for right living, while working in partnership with the criminal justice system; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Green has received encouraging recommendations from facility staff who believe that Mr. Green will “continue to make the positive adjustments in his life, and live a successful, crime-free life while giving back to the community”; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Green appears to be a proper subject for clemency.

NOW THEREFORE, in accordance with the provisions of Article V, Section 12 of the Constitution of Virginia, I, Ralph S. Northam, do hereby grant Robert Henry Green a Conditional Pardon for the above listed convictions, reducing his sentence of active incarceration from thirty-nine years to thirty-two years. Provided, however, that this Pardon shall be subject to Mr. Green accepting the following terms and conditions:

- 1) He submits to the Virginia Parole Board a home plan, which it approves;

- 2) He is supervised by Probation and Parole as directed by the Virginia Parole Board for three years upon his release from the Department of Corrections;
- 3) He participates in and satisfactorily completes any evidence-based program(s) that he may be referred to based upon assessment and at the instruction of his parole officer. Such programs may include group sessions led by a facilitator or administered by the probation and parole office;
- 4) He undergoes a substance abuse treatment evaluation within one year of his release from the Department of Corrections and fully complies with all resulting recommendations;
- 5) He abides by any and all additional terms and conditions established by the Virginia Parole Board;
- 6) He releases all claims, demands, and causes of action, whether known or unknown, accrued or unaccrued, he has or may have against the Commonwealth of Virginia, as well as its political subdivisions, officials, employees, and agents that are in any way related to or arise out of Mr. Green's arrest or incarceration in the Virginia Department of Corrections. Mr. Green agrees that this release is binding on his heirs, assigns, agents, and estate;
- 7) The terms and conditions of this Pardon shall be satisfied three years from the date of Robert Green's release provided he has complied with all its terms and conditions; and
- 8) Robert Green shall have no contact with the victims or their families, unless specifically approved in advance by the probation officer or, once supervision has been terminated, with prior approval of the Virginia Circuit Court in the jurisdiction in which he resides. This includes no third-party contact on behalf of Robert Green;
- 9) If any of the foregoing terms and conditions of this Pardon are violated, Mr. Green shall forfeit all privileges provided under this grant of Clemency and, at my direction, shall be subject to immediate arrest and incarceration to complete the term of his original sentences.

Given under my hand and the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth at Richmond, this 30th day of August in the year of Two Thousand and Twenty-One and this 246th year of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Muhsin, Abdul-Walee
aka Vladimir Francisco Sanchez-Rodriguez

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME – GREETINGS:

WHEREAS, Abdul-Walee Muhsin aka Vladimir Francisco Sanchez-Rodriguez was convicted in Arlington County Circuit Court of Robbery and Malicious Wounding, and was subsequently sentenced on November 14, 1997 to serve an active period of incarceration of 50 years; and

WHEREAS, Abdul-Walee Muhsin filed his petition seeking executive clemency, specifically requesting a conditional pardon; and

WHEREAS, Abdul-Walee Muhsin aka Vladimir Francisco Sanchez-Rodriguez is a native of El Salvador and would feel comfortable returning to his home country; and

WHEREAS, Abdul-Walee Muhsin has served twenty-four years of his parole ineligible sentence; and

WHEREAS, Abdul-Walee Muhsin, has demonstrated a commitment to reformation and redemption; and

WHEREAS, Abdul-Walee Muhsin appears to meet qualifications for clemency, specifically for consideration of his petition for a conditional pardon;

NOW THEREFORE, in accordance with the provisions of Article V, Section 12 of the Constitution of Virginia, I, Ralph S. Northam, do hereby grant Abdul-Walee Muhsin aka Vladimir Francisco Sanchez-Rodriguez a Conditional Pardon for his felony convictions, reducing his sentence to time served effective November 19, 2021. Provided, however, that this Pardon shall be subject to Mr. Muhsin accepting and abiding by the following terms and conditions:

- (1) He remains in Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) custody until travel documents can be obtained from El Salvador for his deportation and he is deported.
- (2) He agrees to a voluntary deportation from the United States to El Salvador or any country that accepts him.
- (3) If he is released into the community on ICE supervision, if he fails to be deported, or if he does not voluntarily deport, he will be found in violation of this pardon's conditions and returned to Virginia Department of Corrections custody to serve the remainder of his sentence immediately.
- (4) If he ever returns to the United States, he will serve the remainder of his sentence.

- (5) He releases all claims, demands, and causes of action, whether known or unknown, accrued or unaccrued, he has or may have against the Commonwealth of Virginia, as well as its political subdivisions, officials, employees, and agents that are in any way related to or arise out of Mr. Muhsin's arrest or incarceration in the Virginia Department of Corrections. Mr. Muhsin agrees that this release is binding on his heirs, assigns, agents, and estate;

The Virginia Parole Board may revoke Abdul-Walee Muhsin aka Vladimir Francisco Sanchez-Rodriguez's pardon, based on a violation of one or more of the conditions above, or based on a finding by the Board that he is otherwise unfit or unsuitable to remain on supervision. Abdul-Walee Muhsin aka Vladimir Francisco Sanchez-Rodriguez shall be subject to arrest upon cause shown by the Virginia Parole Board or the Parole Officer.

Given under my hand and the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth at Richmond, this 19th day of November in the year of Two Thousand and Twenty-One and this 246th year of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Nolen, Darnell Brandon

WHEREAS, his co-defendants received substantially lower sentences of less than 15 years each; and

WHEREAS, Lawrence Jacob Stephens filed his petition seeking executive clemency, specifically requesting a conditional pardon; and

WHEREAS, Lawrence Jacob Stephens appears to be a proper subject for clemency.

NOW THEREFORE, in accordance with the provisions of Article V, Section 12 of the Constitution of Virginia, I, Ralph S. Northam, do hereby grant Lawrence Jacob Stephens, a Conditional Pardon for his felony convictions listed above, reducing his sentence to time served, plus the period it takes for him to complete the Re-entry Program provided by the Virginia Department of Corrections, as outlined below. Provided, however, that this Pardon shall be subject to Mr. Stephens accepting the following terms and conditions:

- (1) He successfully completes the re-entry programs provided by the Virginia Department of Corrections as set forth by their risk and needs assessment;
- (2) He submits to the Virginia Parole Board a home plan, which it approves;
- (3) He is supervised by Probation and Parole as directed by the Virginia Parole Board for three (3) years upon his release from the Department of Corrections;
- (4) He participates in and completes any evidence-based program(s) that he may be referred to based upon assessment and at the instruction of his parole officer. Such programs may include group sessions led by a facilitator or administered by the parole office;
- (5) He undergoes a substance abuse treatment evaluation within one year of his release from the Department of Corrections and fully complies with all resulting recommendations;
- (6) He is to abide by any and all additional terms and conditions established by the Virginia Parole Board;
- (7) He releases all claims, demands, and causes of action, whether known or unknown, accrued or unaccrued, he has or may have against the Commonwealth of Virginia, as well as its political subdivisions, officials, employees, and agents that are in any way related to or arise out of Mr. Stephens' arrest or incarceration in the Virginia Department of Corrections. Mr. Stephens agrees that this release is binding on his heirs, assigns, agents, and estate;
- (8) That the terms and conditions of this Pardon shall be satisfied three (3) years from the date of Mr. Stephens' release from the Department of Corrections, provided he has complied with all the terms and conditions of this Pardon; and

- (9) If any of the foregoing terms and conditions of this Pardon are violated, Mr. Stephens shall forfeit all privileges provided under this grant of Clemency and, at my direction, shall be subject to immediate arrest and incarceration to complete the term of his original sentences.

Given under my hand and the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth at Richmond, this 17th day of December in the year of Two Thousand and Twenty-One and this 246th year of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Thomas, Charles Momodu

TO ALL WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME – GREETINGS:

WHEREAS, Charles Momodou Thomas was convicted by a judge in the Circuit Court of Arlington County on November 3, 1995, of Robbery (two counts), Abduction, Grand Larceny, and Use of a Firearm in Commission of a Felony (two counts), and was sentenced life imprisonment plus 30 years; and

WHEREAS, Charles Momodou Thomas immigrated to the United States from the Republic of Gambia in 1986 seeking psychiatric care and schooling under the care of his sister; and

WHEREAS, after the death of his sister, Charles Momodou Thomas experienced great mental health challenges and was later diagnosed with Bipolar Disorder and Anti-Social Personality Disorder and did not receive any meaningful therapeutic intervention or counseling; and

WHEREAS, Charles Momodou Thomas filed his petition on November 17, 2017 seeking executive clemency, specifically requesting a conditional pardon; and

WHEREAS, upon his release, Charles Momodou Thomas will return to Gambia, where he will be sectioned to a mental health facility; and

WHEREAS, the Minister of Gambia wrote a letter of full support on behalf of Mr. Thomas, reiterating that Gambia does not sympathize with serious crimes and does not condone the actions of Mr. Thomas, but seeks to provide him, a citizen of their Republic, the help that he needs; and

WHEREAS, Charles Momodou Thomas appears to meet the qualifications for clemency, specifically for consideration of his petition for a conditional pardon;

NOW THEREFORE, in accordance with the provisions of Article V, Section 12 of the Constitution of Virginia, I, Ralph S. Northam, do hereby grant Charles Momodou Thomas a Conditional Pardon for the above listed convictions received on November 3, 1995, reducing his sentence to time-served. This pardon is conditioned on Charles Momodou Thomas abiding by the following:

- 1.) He remains in Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) custody until travel documents can be obtained from Gambia for his deportation and he is deported.
- 2.) He agrees to a voluntary deportation from the United States to Gambia or any country that accepts him.
- 3.) If he is released into the community on ICE supervision, if he fails to be deported, or if he does not voluntarily deport, he will be found in violation of this pardon's conditions and returned to Virginia Department of Corrections custody to serve the remainder of his sentence immediately.

- 4.) If he ever returns to the United States, he will serve the remainder of his sentence.
- 5.) He releases all claims, demands, and causes of action, whether known or unknown, accrued or unaccrued, he has or may have against the Commonwealth of Virginia, as well as its political subdivisions, officials, employees, and agents that are in any way related to or arise out of Charles Momodou Thomas's arrest or incarceration in the Virginia Department of Corrections. Charles Momodou Thomas agrees that this release is binding on his heirs, assigns, agents, and estate;

The Virginia Parole Board may revoke Charles Momodou Thomas's pardon, based on a violation of one or more of the conditions above, or based on a finding by the Board that he is otherwise unfit or unsuitable to remain on supervision. Charles Momodou Thomas shall be subject to arrest upon cause shown by the Virginia Parole Board or the Parole Officer.

Given under my hand and the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth at Richmond, this 13th day of August in the year of two thousand and twenty-one and this 246th year of the Commonwealth of Virginia.
