State Corporation Commission

PUBLISHED - Report on the findings and recommendations of the stakeholder group convened to recommend policy proposals that could govern public electric utility programs to accelerate widespread transportation electrification in the Commonwealth of Virginia, and shall evaluate: 1. Areas where utility or other public investment may best complement private efforts to effectively deploy charging infrastructure, with particular focus on low-income, minority, and rural communities; 2. How smart growth policies can complement and enhance the Commonwealth's transportation electrification goals; and 3. How utility programs, investments, or incentives to customers or third parties to facilitate the deployment of charging infrastructure and related upgrades can support or enhance (i) statewide transportation electrification, including electrification of public transit; (ii) the electrification of medium-duty and heavy-duty vehicles, school buses, vehicles at ports and airports, personal vehicles, and vehicle fleets; (iii) increased access to electric transportation and improved air quality in low-income and medium-income communities; (iv) achievement of the energy storage targets established in subsection E of § 56-585.5 of the Code of Virginia; (v) improvements to the distribution grid or to specific sites necessary to accommodate charging infrastructure; and (vi) customer education and outreach programs that increase awareness of such programs and the benefits of transportation electrification; and shall address whether and how transportation electrification can, under current law: a. Reduce total ratepayer rates and costs; b. Assist in grid management and more efficient use of the grid, in a manner that does not increase peak demand, through time-of-use rates, managed charging programs, vehicle-to-grid programs, or other alternative rate designs; c. Utilize increased generation from renewable energy resources; and d. Reduce fueling costs for vehicles. Chapter 268 Enactment Clause 1., § 1. (Special Session I, 2021) - [5/1/2022]
