Absolute Pardon

Parker, George E.

TO ALL WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME – GREETINGS:

WHEREAS, George Edward Parker, Jr., was convicted in the General District Court of the County of Fairfax on October 25, 2001, of Assault and Battery a misdemeanor; and

WHEREAS, George Edward Parker, Jr., was sentenced by a judge to 30 days in jail with 25 days suspended; and

WHEREAS, George Edward Parker, Jr., submitted a petition for clemency seeking an absolute pardon based on the circumstances surrounding his innocence; and

WHEREAS, upon careful deliberation and review of all the information and circumstances of the matter, I have decided it is just and appropriate to grant this ABSOLUTE PARDON that reflects George Edward Parker, Jr.’s, innocence of Assault and Battery, for which he was convicted on October 25, 2001.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Glen Youngkin, Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia, in accordance with the authority granted to me under Article V, Section 12 of the Constitution of Virginia, do hereby grant unto George Edward Parker, Jr., this Absolute Pardon from the conviction handed down by the General District Court of the County of Fairfax on October 25, 2001.

Given under my hand and the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth at Richmond, this 4th day of August in the year of Two Thousand and Twenty-Three and this 248th year of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Smith, Scott Thomas

TO ALL WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME – GREETINGS:

WHEREAS, in May 2021, Scott Smith’s daughter was the victim of a violent sexual assault in the restroom of a Loudoun County high school for which the assailant was later found criminally responsible; and

WHEREAS, in June 2021, Scott Thomas Smith exercised his constitutional right to attend a public meeting of the Loudoun County School Board to observe the proceedings, during which time a community member threatened to spread false and malicious information about Mr. Smith’s business with the intent to damage his reputation; and

WHEREAS, after an ensuing verbal confrontation, Scott Thomas Smith was charged with Obstruction of Justice and Disorderly Conduct; and

WHEREAS, Scott Thomas Smith was convicted in the General District Court of the County of Loudoun on August 17, 2021 of Obstruction of Justice and Disorderly Conduct after pleading not guilty; and

WHEREAS, on appeal, Scott Thomas Smith’s conviction for Obstruction of Justice was dismissed with prejudice before trial due to an irregularity not attributable to Scott Thomas Smith; and

WHEREAS, on appeal, the Loudoun County Circuit Court issued an order disqualifying the original prosecutor in Scott Thomas Smith’s case due to concerns about “the integrity of the prosecution,” “the impartiality of the Commonwealth’s Attorney,” and a specific finding that Scott Smith’s due process rights were “in jeopardy;” and

WHEREAS, Scott Thomas Smith has been publicly and falsely accused of “domestic terrorism” and “hate crimes” for attempting to advocate for his daughter, a victim of violent sexual assault; and

WHEREAS, upon careful deliberation and review of the circumstances of the matter, I have decided it is just and appropriate to grant this ABSOLUTE PARDON that reflects Scott Thomas Smith’s factual innocence of Disorderly Conduct, for which he was convicted on August 17, 2021;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Glenn A. Youngkin, Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia, in accordance with the authority granted to me under Article V, Section 12 of the Constitution of Virginia, do hereby grant unto Scott Thomas Smith this Absolute Pardon from the conviction for Disorderly Conduct handed down by the General District Court of the County of Loudoun on August 17, 2021.

Given under my hand and the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth at Richmond, this 8th day of September in the year of two thousand and twenty-three and this 248th year of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Conditional Pardons

Barkley, Randell Hakeem Love

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME – GREETINGS:

WHEREAS, Randell Hakeem Love Barkley was sentenced in Norfolk City Circuit Court on December 17, 2007 of Aggravated Malicious Wounding, Robbery, Use of a Firearm in the Commission of a Felony First Offense, Use of a Firearm in the Commission of a Felony Second Offense, Abduction with the Intent to Extort Money and Participation in a Criminal Act for the Benefit of a Gang; and

WHEREAS, Randell Hakeem Love Barkley was sentenced to serve three life terms plus ten years; and

WHEREAS, Randell Hakeem Love Barkley has served almost sixteen years of his sentence; and

WHEREAS, Randell Hakeem Love Barkley was 16 years old at the time of the offenses; and

WHEREAS, his co-defendants received substantially lower sentences; and

WHEREAS, Randell Hakeem Love Barkley filed his petition seeking executive clemency, specifically requesting a conditional pardon; and

WHEREAS, Randell Hakeem Love Barkley appears to be a proper subject for clemency.

NOW THEREFORE, in accordance with the provisions of Article V, Section 12 of the Constitution of Virginia, I, Glenn Youngkin, do hereby grant Randell Hakeem Love Barkley, a

Commutation of Sentence for his felony convictions listed above, reducing his sentence to 50 years. Provided, however, that this Pardon shall be subject to Mr. Barkley accepting the following terms and conditions:

- (1) He successfully completes the re-entry programs provided by the Virginia Department of Corrections as set forth by their risk and needs assessment;
- (2) He submits to the Department of Corrections a home plan, which it approves;
- (3) He is supervised by Probation and Parole as directed by the Virginia Parole Board for three (3) years upon his release from the Department of Corrections;
- (4) He participates in and completes any evidence-based program(s) that he may be referred to based upon assessment and at the instruction of his parole officer. Such programs may include group sessions led by a facilitator or administered by the parole office;
- (5) He undergoes a substance abuse treatment evaluation within one year of his release from the Department of Corrections and fully complies with all resulting recommendations;
- (6) He is to abide by any and all additional terms and conditions established by the Virginia Parole Board;
- (7) He releases all claims, demands, and causes of action, whether known or unknown, accrued or unaccrued, he has or may have against the Commonwealth of Virginia, as well as its political subdivisions, officials, employees, and agents that are in any way related to or arise out of Mr. Barkley's arrest or incarceration in the Virginia Department of Corrections. Mr. Barkley's agrees that this release is binding on his heirs, assigns, agents, and estate;
- (8) That the terms and conditions of this Pardon shall be satisfied three (3) years from the date of Mr. Barkley's release from the Department of Corrections, provided he has complied with all the terms and conditions of this Pardon; and
- (9) If any of the foregoing terms and conditions of this Pardon are violated, Mr. Barkley shall forfeit all privileges provided under this grant of Clemency and, at the direction of the Virginia Parole Board, shall be subject to immediate arrest and incarceration to complete the term of his original sentences.
- (10) If Mr. Barkley commits any new crimes before his release from prison and is found guilty in a court of law, he shall forfeit the reduction in sentence granted by this commutation and his original sentence of three life terms plus 10 years shall be reinstated.

- (11) Mr. Barkley is eligible to earn good time credits according to applicable law and the policies of the Department of Corrections.

Given under my hand and the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth at Richmond, this 20th day of January in the year of Two Thousand and Twenty-Three and this 247th year of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Harris, Samuel Elbert

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME – GREETINGS:

WHEREAS, Samuel Elbert Harris was sentenced in Suffolk City Circuit Court on November 9, 2000, of Robbery (2 counts), Use of a Firearm in the Commission of a Felony (2 counts), Carjacking, Abduction, Habitual Offender, Hit & Run Personal Injury, Statutory Burglary (2 counts), Larceny of a Firearm, Grand Larceny, Statutory Burglary/Grand Larceny (Merged - 15 counts), Grand Larceny of a Motor Vehicle, Statutory Burglary/Petit Larceny (Merged), Grand Larceny from a Person; and

WHEREAS, Samuel Elbert Harris was sentenced to serve 60 years; and

WHEREAS, Samuel Elbert Harris has served over 23 years of his sentence; and

WHEREAS, Samuel Elbert Harris was 29 or 30 years old (depending on the offense) at the time of the offenses; and

WHEREAS, Samuel Elbert Harris filed his petition seeking executive clemency, specifically requesting a conditional pardon; and

WHEREAS, Samuel Elbert Harris appears to be a proper subject for clemency.

NOW THEREFORE, in accordance with the provisions of Article V, Section 12 of the Constitution of Virginia, I, Glenn Youngkin, do hereby grant Samuel Elbert Harris, a Commutation of Sentence for his felony convictions listed above, reducing his sentence to 29 years and 7 months. Provided, however, that this Pardon shall be subject to Mr. Harris accepting the following terms and conditions:

- (12) He submits to the Department of Corrections a home plan, which it approves.
- (13) He is supervised by Probation and Parole as directed by the Virginia Parole Board indefinitely upon his release from the Department of Corrections. The first year of his release he shall be under intensive supervision.

- (14) He shall successfully complete the Department of Corrections reentry program prior to his release.
- (15) He shall demonstrate exemplary behavior, cooperate with Department of Corrections' employees, refrain from participating in criminal behavior of any kind, and remain infraction free from the period between the grant date of this pardon and his actual release date. Any criminal acts and/or infractions will be reviewed by the Virginia Parole Board and may result in this pardon grant order being revoked. Any positive test result for alcohol or drugs may result in this pardon grant order being revoked. If the pardon is revoked by the Virginia Parole Board prior to his release from the Department of Corrections, there shall be no right of appeal, and he shall wait three years to petition for another conditional pardon.
- (16) He participates in and successfully completes any evidence-based program(s) he may be referred to after assessment and at the instruction of his parole officer. Such programs may include group sessions led by a facilitator or administered by the parole office.
- (17) He undergoes a substance abuse treatment evaluation within 90 days of his release from the Department of Corrections and fully complies with all resulting recommendations.
- (18) He is to abide by all additional terms and conditions established by the Virginia Parole Board.
- (19) He releases all claims, demands, and causes of action, whether known or unknown, accrued or unaccrued, he has or may have against the Commonwealth of Virginia, as well as its political subdivisions, officials, employees, and agents that are in any way related to or arise out of Mr. Harris' arrest or incarceration in the Virginia Department of Corrections. Mr. Harris agrees this release is binding on his heirs, assigns, agents, and estate. This condition shall not apply to actual innocence claims and does not prohibit petitioning for a writ of actual innocence or an absolute pardon. Should the conviction be overturned, this condition shall not prohibit compensation for the wrongful conviction.
- (20) That the terms and conditions of this Pardon shall be satisfied at the discretion of the Virginia Parole Board, provided he has complied with all the terms and conditions of this Pardon.
- (21) Samuel Elbert Harris shall have no contact with the victims, their families or household members, unless specifically approved in advance by the probation officer or, once supervision has been terminated, with prior approval of the Virginia Circuit Court in the jurisdiction in which he resides. This includes no third-party contact on behalf of Samuel Elbert Harris.

- (22) Samuel Elbert Harris shall work out a payment plan with the Suffolk City Circuit Court within 90 days of his release to repay any fines, court costs and restitution he was ordered to pay at sentencing.
- (23) This conditional pardon shall supersede all Court ordered probation or good behavior requirements; however, if this pardon is revoked, the Court's original probation and good behavior requirements shall be reinstated.
- (24) If any of the foregoing terms and conditions of this Pardon are violated, Mr. Harris shall forfeit all privileges provided under this grant of Clemency and, at the direction of the Virginia Parole Board, shall be subject to immediate arrest and incarceration to complete the term of his original sentences.
- (25) Mr. Harris will continue to earn good time from the Department of Corrections pursuant to the Department of Corrections' policies and procedures.

Given under my hand and the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth at Richmond, this 30th day of August in the year of Two Thousand and Twenty-Three and this 248th year of the Commonwealth of Virginia.
