ORI STRUCTURE AND USE:

The ORI is a nine-character identifier assigned by CJIS Division staff to an agency which has met the established qualifying criteria for ORI assignment to identify the agency in transactions on the NCIC System. The structure of law enforcement ORIs (those ORIs ending with a zero) and other criminal justice ORIs (those ORIs ending with an alphabetic character) are as follows:

Positions 1 and 2 of the ORI will be the alphabetic characters representing the state or country in which the agency is physically located.

- Example: WV0020100

Positions 3, 4, and 5 of the ORI are numeric characters indicating the county in which the agency is physically located.

- Example: WV0020100

Some state level and federal agencies may have the acronym for that agency, in positions 3, 4, and 5 of the ORI. A few examples are WVFBI0000 for the Federal Bureau of Investigations and TXDPD0000 for the Dallas, Texas, Police Department, respectively.

The CJIS Division will determine the numeric and alphabetic characters assigned to positions 6 and 7 of the ORI.

Positions 6 and 7 of the ORI are used to distinguish one agency from another within the same county. Generally, these positions follow alphabetic or numeric order.

- Example: WV0030000, WV0030100, WV0030200, WV0030300

Positions 8 and 9 of a law enforcement ORI will always end in double zero.

- Example: WV0030000

Positions 8 for a criminal justice ORI is a unique numeric character indicating the level of government for the agency.

- For example: WV002015J. The numeric character 5 indicates a state level governmental agency.

- 1 – Local, Municipal, City
- 2 – Foreign Local
- 3 – County
- 4 – Foreign State
- 5 – State
- 6 – Foreign Federal
- 7 – Federal
- 9 – Nongovernmental/private

Position 9 for a criminal justice ORI is a unique alpha character indicating the type of agency.

- For example: WV002015J. The alpha character J indicates this agency is a court.

A – Prosecuting Attorney's Offices to include District Attorneys and Attorney General Offices. This does not include public defenders' offices or defense attorney offices.

B – Pretrial Services and pretrial release agencies.

C – Correctional Institutions to include federal, state, county, and local jails, prisons, and detention centers.

D – Civil courts for use in domestic violence and stalking cases. Limited access to the Wanted Person File and Protection Order File, and NGI/III may be granted to civil courts for use in domestic violence and stalking cases only.

E – Nongovernmental railroad and private campus police departments.

F – Governmental Social Services agencies with child protection responsibilities qualify for all NCIC files, and NGI/III.

G – Probation and Parole offices.

H – The Department of State National Visa Center.

I – Interpol.

J – Criminal courts and magistrates offices.

K – Coroners and medical examiners offices.

L – Not used.

M – Medical examiners offices which are criminal justice in function (as defined in the C.F.R.).

N – Dispatch/911 communication centers.

O – The National Insurance Crime Bureau (NICB).

R – The U.S. Department of Defense, the U.S. Department of State, the U.S. Department of Transportation, the U.S. Office of Personnel Management, the Department of Homeland Security, and the Office of the Director of National Intelligence.

S – Not used.

T – Authorized governmental agencies such as the Department of Children and Family Services.

U – Governmental child support enforcement agencies.

V – A noncriminal justice governmental department of motor vehicles, boat, or driver license registry, established by a state statute, which provides vehicle registration and driver record information to criminal justice agencies and has an essential need to access the License Plate, Vehicle, and Vehicle/Boat Part Files.

W – National Center for Missing and Exploited Children (NCMEC).

X – Not Used.

Y – Federal, state, county or local agencies that meet the criteria of criminal justice agencies as defined by the C.F.R. but do not fall into one of the above categories.
