Shifflett, Wesley Gonzalez

TO ALL WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME- GREETINGS:

WHEREAS, Sgt. Wesley Gonzalez Shifflett was found not guilty by a Fairfax County Circuit Court jury of involuntary manslaughter on October 4, 2024. In the same trial, the jury convicted him of the reckless discharge of a firearm. Despite the Senior Probation & Parole Officer's recommendation against incarceration and supervised probation, on February 28, 2025, the court sentenced Sgt. Wesley Gonzalez Shifflett to five years' incarceration, with two years suspended, and an additional five years of probation; and

WHEREAS, equal justice under law is a cornerstone of our justice system. Equal justice rests upon the bedrock principle that similarly situated individuals receive proportionate punishment. This precept animates sentencing policies enacted into United States and Virginia law. To that end, Virginia's sentencing guidelines "achieve the goals of certainty, consistency, and adequacy of punishment with due regard to the seriousness of the offense, the dangerousness of the offender, deterrence of individuals from committing criminal offenses, and the use of alternative sanctions, where appropriate;" and

WHEREAS, the sentence imposed in this case does not reflect these principles. In fact, the sentencing guidelines for the more serious offense of involuntary manslaughter of which Sgt. Wesley Gonzalez Shifflett was acquitted recommend a period of probation/no incarceration or a term of up to six months; and

WHEREAS, I have exercised the executive clemency authority granted by the Constitution of Virginia with the discretion and deliberation this authority demands. In this case, equal justice, fundamental fairness, and the dictates of conscience command me to action;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Glenn Youngkin, Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia, in accordance with the authority granted to me under Article V, Section 12 of the Constitution of Virginia, do hereby grant executive clemency and commute to time served the sentence imposed by the court upon Sgt. Wesley Gonzalez Shifflett in its entirety. Finally, nothing in this action should be interpreted to deny, impair, abridge, or supersede any and an appellate or other rights of Sgt. Wesley Gonzalez Shifflett.

Given under my hand and the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth at Richmond, this 2nd day of March in the year of two thousand and twenty-five and this 249th year of the Commonwealth of Virginia.
